

Mr. Andre Kevin Walker

July 11, 1960 - April 9, 2019

Andre “Kevin” Walker, age 58, died on April 9th, 2019 at his home in Brooklyn, New York.

Kevin was born on July 11th, 1960. A son to Shirley Allyne Foster and Walter Leverne Walker, Kevin was raised in Richmond Hill, Queens. As a child, Kevin was a boy of exceptional intelligence, he excelled in his studies and enjoyed watching basketball. Kevin was a graduate of John Adams High School and continued his education at City College of New York. Kevin pursued graduate education at the University of South Carolina, eventually achieving his goals with a Master’s Degree in Developmental Psychology with a specialization in children. Throughout his working life he was known for kindness and understanding. A person of great curiosity, Kevin encouraged the trait and sought to inspire children to their potential.

Later in life Kevin would dedicate himself to caring for his mother. As an at-home caregiver, Kevin endeavored to provide his mother the best at the end of her life. The experience had a deep impact on Kevin’s life leading him in a more spiritual direction in his later years. Kevin found peace in Santeria and became a devote follower. He was a leader within his community and was honored by those who knew him.

Kevin loved New York, his home and community.

He is survived by his sister Robin Chavez Walker Alston, his niece Aisha LaShawn Walker, his nephew Peter Valentino Hernandez, a loving aunt Ronnelle RunningDeer Foster and a host of relatives and friends.

Comments

“ Words will never express the sorrow we all feel. A light has been taken from this world. But I am comforted by the knowledge that Kevin's light will now shine from heaven.

We will miss you Kevin.....my friend and my brother.
