

Mr. Angel A. Torres Sr.

October 10, 1939 - January 26, 2016

ANGEL ANIBAL TORRES, SR. was born in Salinas, Puerto Rico on October 10, 1939 and passed away on Tuesday, January 26, 2016.

Angel Anibal grew up in Manhattan and later on moved to East New York Brooklyn. He married, Virginia Rodriguez and had three children, Angel A. Torres, Jr., Jeannie Torres and Connie Torres. He later remarried Miriam Caban until her passing.

He is survived by his three children, Angel A. Torres, Jr., Jeannie Torres and Connie Torres; his sister, Iluminada Torres, his brothers, Jose J. Torres and Efrain Torres, daughter-in-law Brenda and 13 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren.

Angel Anibal enjoyed baseball and was a die hard New York Yankees fan. He was excited to attend one of the first games in the New NY Yankees stadium with his son Angel, daughter Connie and grandson Reggie. He loved going to the ballpark to see his son, Angel Jr., and his daughter, Connie play softball while drinking his Budweiser beer. Every Sunday he would visit all the grandchildren with his bag of candy. He was lovable, caring and loved to joke around. Angel loved listening and dancing to all different kinds of music.

Angel Anibal adopted all the children from the block. The many memories we all have from the trips to Coney Island and the Parks will forever be in our hearts. All who knew him knew of the joy he brought into their life. He will be forever in our hearts.

Events

JAN Visitation 05:00PM - 09:00PM

28

Grace Funeral Chapels

607 North Conduit Blvd., Brooklyn, NY, US, 11208

JAN Visitation 05:00PM - 09:00PM

29

Grace Funeral Chapels

607 North Conduit Blvd., Brooklyn, NY, US, 11208

JAN Funeral Service 09:00AM

30

Grace Funeral Chapels

607 North Conduit Blvd., Brooklyn, NY, US, 11208

JAN Burial

30

Cypress Hills Cemetery

833 Jamaica Avenue, Brooklyn, NY, US, 11208

Comments

“ Sidney Green lit a candle in memory of Mr. Angel A. Torres Sr.

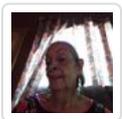

Sidney Green - February 12, 2016 at 02:39 PM

“ Priscilla Joseph (Granddaughter) lit a candle in memory of Mr. Angel A. Torres Sr.

Priscilla Joseph (Granddaughter) - February 02, 2016 at 09:17 PM

“ You were one of my favorite cousins and I loved you dearly! You were a wonderful person and I never forgot what you did for my parents. May God hold you close to him. Will never be forgotten.

Noris Roman - February 01, 2016 at 06:59 PM

“ My condolence to the family,
I just found out from Facebook that he pass away. I loved and missed him very much. Its been a good 20 years that I have not seen him. I remember the days in Brooklyn NY with him and my aunt miriam. You will greatly miss you were a great person to me.

Love always your goddaughter
Jennie

Jennifer williams - February 01, 2016 at 06:12 PM

“ It was a pleasure and honor for me to meet Mr. Angel Torres Sr. His mere presence was a gift. With that said, Angel Anibal Torres Sr. have moved on, and is on a journey to meet all the love ones that left him behind. I'm sure he missed his mother, father, Miriam, little Charlie and all the love ones that left him. He, now have joined them in the big castle in the sky. I'm pretty sure it's a jubilant castle. Papi longed for this day. When you remember him, please do not weep because he's not that far away. Understand that his soul lives on and he will be watching over all of his family as he did when he was on this earth. He was the heart and soul of this wonderful family that was spear headed by his sister Lumi and brother Efrain. His Son Chepo and daughters Connie and Jeannie. Daughter in Law, Brenda. Grandchildrens, Angel Jr., Luis, Tiffany, Amy, Nicky, Stephen, Victotor, Priscilla, William, Alejandro, Andrea, Reggie and Delino. Excuse me if I missed anyone.
God has taken him under his wing. The Torres family have lost Anibal Torres, but God have gain an angel. We all know that death is inevitable, so with that said, he, now awaits for all the love ones he left behind. When that time comes, he will be waiting in the big castle in the sky with open arms to greet each and everyone. Understand that there's no time frame, he will be there waiting for as long as it takes. For now, let him celebrate his past. God welcomes him.

- Bless his soul.

Reginald Saintil - January 29, 2016 at 10:20 PM

“ Brooklyn Boiler Plant operators purchased the Arrive in Style for the family of Mr. Angel A. Torres Sr..

Brooklyn Boiler Plant operators - January 29, 2016 at 07:32 AM

“ Papi you will truly be missed! It was always a good time when you came down to visit us in Florida. I will always remember the times we would watch movies together with the tv on blast and you would always say " Jesus Christ" when ever something big happens. I loved the fact that you cursed so much I always told Jeannie that you are the cutest thing. We love you and miss you! Rest in peace Papi!!

Kim Pena - January 28, 2016 at 10:16 PM

“ All the years Angel assisted his daughter, Connie, at work, he wasn't very friendly towards anyone but me. We used to talk & joke. Connie thought it was strange that he was so nice to me.

Gloria Sancho - January 28, 2016 at 01:38 PM

“ Full Of Love Bouquet was purchased for the family of Mr. Angel A. Torres Sr..

January 28, 2016 at 12:38 PM

“ I've known this great man and his wonderful family for over 36yrs and consider ALL of them as an extension to my small family. Words cannot express how sad it was to hear that 'Pa' was not feeling well and then the Lord called upon him. I'm sure the pain is very deep at this moment and you can't think past it right now but knowing that he is no longer suffering and now watching over his beautiful family is consoling. We love and miss u already. R.I.P. Pa...until we meet again, Maddie & Brats

Maddie Melendez - January 28, 2016 at 12:36 PM

“ Angel Pa, I think back of the all the years I have known you.And the number one thing is how much your family and close friends meant so much to you.How much you did and cared so much for us. I know you in a better place where there is no pain or hurt. I pray that God gives your family and friends strength during this time.But we will always remember all the good times we shared.So rest in peace Pa and you'll always be in our hearts forever. Love Evelyn

Evelyn - January 28, 2016 at 12:21 PM

“ Dear Grandpa;

I never knew any of my grandfather's so when I married your granddaughter (priscilla) you became my grandpa. You always gave love to my son (maysin) and he loved you in return so the hardest part for me was telling him that you left us for a better place.....

I'm happy you were around to meet my girls (madi & morgi). I remember it like it was yesterday. You would say " oh my god..., look at that..... it's two of them... jesus christ." Lol

They didn't get to share enough time with you but my promise to you is that I will never let my kids forget their great grandfather because great is what you were. The only grandpa I ever knew ..I love you.

Keep a cold one ready for me.....

Till I see u again.....

Kenny

kenneth joseph - January 28, 2016 at 11:10 AM

“ What can I say about my father. He was my world he was everything. All my life he was my protector the 1 person who I knew would always LOVE me no matter what who would always be on my side. He was the best father, grandfather and man I had ever known no one can compare to him. Losing him is losing A part of me. I will always love him he will be Forever in my heart and soul. I know your at Peace now and no longer suffering and your with my other angel Lil Charlie. Take care of each other and watch out for us. I love you dearly papi so proud to be your daughter.

Jeannie. Torres

Jeannie Torres daughter - January 28, 2016 at 11:07 AM

“ Divine Peace Bouquet was purchased for the family of Mr. Angel A. Torres Sr..

January 28, 2016 at 10:44 AM

“ My heart aches for my family! I am glad I had the honor of meeting you and being a part of your family! I will remember you as the handsome man who will wear a suit on his birthdays and a great grandpa who will light up at the sight of his great grandkids. You will be truly missed! You were a great man and loved by all!! Heaven has truly gained an angel! Sleep in peace grandpa Angel <3

Paula - Williams (grandson) wife

Paula Alvarez - January 28, 2016 at 08:49 AM

“Hiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii darling how are you" is what he always said to me as soon as he saw my face, I'd hug him and he'd rub my cheeks. He'd say "you're one of the good ones". I will really miss him at the baseball games. I'm so sad for Chepo. my madrina Connie, and Jeannie. I know how much he loved his kids. I absolutely witnessed almost all my life his kindness, his love for all his grandkids (you guys are so lucky, god bless). I will keep you all in my prayers, and I'm hoping you all can find a bit of solace, despite what has happened. I pray that he is dancing now with the angels and most of all I hope that he has already met up with Lil Charlie and both feel safe now. For all of his family, friends, extended family, I send my condolences, and some really tight hugs. God bless you guys.

With lots of Love Nelly Reyes

Nelly Reyes - January 28, 2016 at 07:30 AM

“ There are so many memories that I have of my brother Angel . He was one of the first persons I remember who used to put a great e are on his jeans and spit shine his shoes like mirrors. My brother was a good son, a fantastic father a n alwAys a giving brother. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him as well as all his family. Rest in peace, brother. I love you and I will miss you.
Your brother, Efrain (Tato)

Efrain Torres - January 27, 2016 at 08:59 PM

“ I have never heard anyone making any negative comments towards Angel Torres. He was the heart and soul of this wonderful family. Understand that he is moving forward and crossing over to the next life to meet all the loved ones that left him and now they're waiting for him with open arms. God Bless his soul. He now waits for his love ones. There's no time limit. He will watch and wait to greet his loved ones as he is about to be greeted with joy and happiness by his wife Miriam, mother and father. She'd no tears for Papi. He did his job here on earth, and did it like no other. The lord is gaining a valuable member. Out lost is God's gain.

reginald Saintil - January 29, 2016 at 02:18 PM

“ I didn't know Mr. Torres personally, only knew of memorable stories his daughter, Jeannie Torres shared with me. I know he was full of life and had a good soul. I know he loved music and enjoyed a good beat now and then.. He was very much loved, I know that for sure. My heart goes out to Jeannie and her family. She is like a mother to me. Please know we are praying for u all during this terrible loss.

Charlotte Young & Judah Flores - January 27, 2016 at 08:24 PM

“ I wish I could have seen Papi more. I know how much he loved it here in Florida, I was waiting for the day he would move down here and I could see him all the time. Whenever he did come down to have a vacation with us he would want his coffee every morning and fight to not take his pills. I would always get him to take them anyway. I will hold every memory I have of Papi close because he is the best grandpa anyone could have ever hoped for. Yes even the one where he was sun bathing in his undies in our front yard. And when he told me the Vietnam war was 4 years ago (I guess it's now 8 years ago). I love you Papi please have fun up in heaven. We are all gonna miss you so much.

~Samantha (Granddaughter)

Samantha Figueredo - January 27, 2016 at 07:39 PM

“ You will be so missed Tio. I will always remember how funny you were and how much you did for guella. You were an amazing man, I love you so much and I'm so happy that my daughter got to know you as well. God gained a soldier by his side. You will always be remembered and be in my heart. I love you!

Andrea (niece) - January 27, 2016 at 07:34 PM

“ God blessed dis man with da best family ever he was da only grandpa I knew I remember him walking round with a beer in one hand and a briefcase in da other hand. I still don't know what he had in it but he did it. lol I know how much he loved a quick to tell u what get da fuck outta here. lol if he felt like u was on dat bull. he was da realest.. I know he will watch over all da family with da blessings god gives him.. grandpa i will never forget how u was .. u are the g.o.a.t. (The Greatest of All Times)

-Victor (Grandson)

Victor Pena - January 27, 2016 at 07:30 PM

“ Hey grandpa, it saddens me that I'm writing this since I haven't had anyone so close in family pass, at least while I'm old enough to remember. Therefore, my emotions are a bit all over the place. This situation is quintessential of a bittersweet feeling since you are no longer suffering and that you are truly in a better place. It hurt seeing you in the hospital like that and the fact that someone had to take care of you prior. I still remember when I was younger and you'll take Reggie and I to the store and get us candy. I also remember this one time specifically when I came home from school and you were there and made me waffles and let me watch Tv (boys meets world) while you were listening to some Spanish radio station on a black radio that had white paint on it. My memories might not be spot on but the fact that I could look back and remember nothing but good things about you is enough. You definitely did your job while you were here with us and everyone appreciates it. Thankfully you were able to see your family grow and experienced each special moment of your children's life. It has been an honor to meet you and call you my grandpa! I love you and Rest In Peace

Delino Saintil - January 27, 2016 at 06:27 PM

“ RIP Grandpa!
I'm so thankful to know the Torres family. My heart hurts for all his children, siblings, grandkids and great grandkids. Praying for strength and comfort for you all. I'm honored to have known him since I was a teenager. We have laughed it up several times at the tax office and many Torres Family functions. I'm just a friend to the family but called him Grandpa. He always showed me love.

Gone but never will he be forgotten.

Mel Barnes,
Family Friend

MELISSA BARNES - January 27, 2016 at 04:10 PM

“ Hey grandpa, I know you are in a better place. But i want you to know that I love you and miss you so much. You were the anchor to our family, not sure how our life will be without you. As a kid I can always count on you having that brown paper bag with all different types of candy for all your grandkids. But the most important thing I can count on is your love and laughs. I also remember when I first started working with you and my mom (your daughter) watching how you worked, how you did things especially during tax season, I truly admired and follow it till this day as I continue to work with my mom. I want to say thank you for everything... You are a great man, great father, great grandpa, and great great grandpa... And will continue to be such in all of our hearts and minds... R.I.P GRANDPA I LOVE YOU ALWAYS... YOUR GRANDSON WILLIAM...

William Alvarez Jr. (Grandson) - January 27, 2016 at 02:31 PM

“ I am loss of words. My grandfather was amazing.. one of a kind. My heart will always have emptiness and will never be the same without him. God bless me and my family during this rough time.. but his memories will help us get through and he will forever live on in our hearts!

Tiffany (grand daughter)

Tiffany (grand daughter) - January 27, 2016 at 12:53 PM

“ Sentiments of Serenity Spray was purchased for the family of Mr. Angel A. Torres Sr..

January 27, 2016 at 12:09 PM

“ My grandfather will be missed by many. I'm not sure how life would be without him but I know how it was with him by our side. It was GREAT!!! He always made me laugh and never did feel unloved by him. He was a GREAT dad, brother, grandfather and great grandfather. Don't worry grandpa I will take care of your daughter (my mom)as you always asked me too. I will miss you with all of my HEART. You are gone but never forgotten. REST IN PEACE GRANDPA, no more pain and suffering. Love Priscilla (Peachy)

Priscilla Joseph (Granddaughter) - January 27, 2016 at 11:44 AM

“ My memory of Anibal has always been a happy memory. Anibal was in my life for many years, and I truly loved him as a father and a good friend. He was a popular, loved, happy man. Not too many people knew that we had a special bonding, when my mom Miriam passed away he wanted to comfort me by going to church with me (he volunteered) and he would call me every Sunday (for a while) to make sure I would pick him up. A simple gesture of kindness like that I will always remember. Aside from that he was always happy, dancing , singing (beer in hand) . Last time I spent time with him I gave him a few beers, (I'm sorry Junito). I will always remember him as an energetic, happy, willing to help others kind of man. Rest in peace Anibal And kiss my Mommy for me...

Sonia E. Gonzalez - January 27, 2016 at 11:24 AM

“ Remembering when Mr Torres Sr worked with his daughter ,Connie . Tax season was and is a very hectic time,but ,Torres Sr,was on the ball..The time I spend in the office he was very charming and always made me laugh.Mr Torres will be missed,but never forgottenforgotten till we meet again .RIP. : (

Angelina Ayala - January 27, 2016 at 07:47 AM

“ He was not only my dad he was my best friend and heart. He was the most admired and love man I know. He touch the heart of everyone who has ever meet him and show a generation of young men on how to grow up to be respectful men. I am proud to be told that I grew up to be just like him although I could never ever be. I will miss him dearly and when I start to play softball will feel the emptiness of not having my biggest cheerleader and fan there. I will always be proud to be call your son so Rest In Peace Papi I Love You

Angel Torres Jr - January 26, 2016 at 08:49 PM

“ Angel was not only my brother but my right hand and friend. I will miss him so much that I can not out it in words. May he rest in peace along side our Mom, our brothers and sisters who have left us.

iluminada torres - January 26, 2016 at 06:20 PM