May 6, 1946 - February 18, 2013

Evette Angela Cadogan was born on May 6th, 1946 to Violet and Mortville Cadogan in Barbados. She was the 3rd child of 8 children, and had 5 children of her own, all girls. She grew up in Barbados and attended the St. Patrick's R.C. Church and School -- where she proudly sent all her children.

She loved to cook and bake, garden, sew and knit and we were all recipients of the fruits of her labors.

Evette migrated to the USA in the middle of the 80's, to provide for her family she worked a variety of jobs before entering Corporate America with then Solomon Smith Barney and ended her working career at SUNY Downstate. In addition to ensuring that her family prospered she went on to complete her Baccalaureate degree at Baruch, became a Real Estate Agent and Tax Preparer in addition to volunteering within the community.

She leaves to mourn her husband Lionel Moore; her children Maria, Narda, Jacqueline, Lee-Anne and Alex; Her grandchildren Maisha, Akia, Jordan (d), Joshua, Kevin, Grace, William, Elijah, Sebastian and Kyle; her sons-in-law Kerwin, Godfrey, Kenley and Tony; her siblings Oliver (Pocants)(d), Harold (d) Marian, Mark, Rosetta, Frederick, Glenys and David; Sisters In-Laws Marjorie, Eunice, Cecily; several nieces and nephews and beloved friends.

The prayer of St. Francis.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

To be understood, as to understand;

To be loved, as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive.

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

Amen.
