

Mrs. Margaret E. Middleton

December 12, 1953 - July 1, 2018

Margaret Elizabeth Stanley-Middleton was born December 12, 1953 in Harlem Hospital to the late Hammond Alexander Jr and Beatrice Spencer-Stanley.

Margaret was educated in the New York City Public school system and graduated from Clara Barton High School in 1971. She worked at Western Union for several years and then started a career with The New York City Police Department (School Safety Division) for several years before she was injured on the job and forced to prematurely retire. Margaret shared a special bond with her mother the late Beatrice (mother). They were practically joined at the hip when you saw mother you know Margaret was close behind. Margaret was deeply affected when mother was called to eternal rest in 1998.

Margaret always told it like it was and gave her opinion whether you liked it or not nor did she care how you felt about it afterwards. She was definitely one of a kind and her favorite lines was "Talk about it baby" she will be deeply missed by all her loved ones.

Margaret transitioned into eternal rest on July 1, 2018 while being cared for at the Medical University of South Carolina, due to several medical complications. She fought a good fight but the lord then told her to take her rest.

Margaret was predeceased by both parents Hammond Alexander and Beatrice Spencer-Stanley, and siblings Allen, Norman and Kim.

Margaret leaves to mourn her daughters Desiree and Shauntae, her three grandsons Amir, Nasir and Kaiden, her nine siblings Lorraine, Kisha, Stephanie, William, Kathleen, Dwayne, Keith, George and Gary along with a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
