

Ms. Zenobia Mustipher

August 27, 1944 - July 18, 2015

Zenobia Whiting Mustipher was born on August 27, 1944 to the parents of Herbert And Wilhelmenia Whiting (deceased) in Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, New York. She was called home on July 18, 2015 at 7:40 a.m.

Zenobia was the youngest of eight siblings and was raised by her grandmother Ms. Adeline Hodge in South Carolina.

After graduating from Ruffin High School in South Carolina she returned back to Brooklyn to live with her father Herbert and stepmother Rebecca Whiting and other siblings. While in Brooklyn she met and married Felix Mustipher; their union was blessed with a son name Victor.

Zenobia worked various jobs; factory worker, data entry clerk at Banker Trust and a Nurses' Aide at Woodhull Hospital. After she retired she found her greatest love - being a Foster Parent ent. While being a foster parent she adopted Kellie Drumgold while also caring for her siblings Tationa and Alex.

"Zee" known by her family and friends had a big heart and lots of love to give. That's what made her the perfect Foster Parent. Her love and generosity extended way beyond family and friends she was the "Welcome Wagon" when you moved in the building. Zenobia had a way of making you feel like you been friends forever when you just met her. She loved classic R&B, gospel music and would listen to it for hours.

She leaves to cherish her memories: loving sons: Victor Mustipher and Alex Drumgold; daughters: Kellie Drumgold

Mustipher and Tationa Drumgold; Godson Richard Clement, sisters: Vivian, Louise, Willie, Patricia, Elizabeth, Menia, Susie (deceased), brothers: Herbert, James (deceased), John (Deceased), granddaughters: Kayla and Kiani Mustipher; grandsons: Amair and Amari Smith, and a host of family and friends.

“ Zenobia,

I knew her as Nobie and we lived in the Marcy Housing together for many years with 4 other close friends. We had a good friendship with her. Nobie was the type of person that everyone loved. Nobie had a good heart and she loved people. Always giving of herself. Nobie I love you and I will miss you and may you "Rest in Peace".

P.S. My mom (Irene Smith) who live in the Marcy. Her and Nobie would sometime see each other on "Broadway" a shopping area or McDonalds on the corner and talk. My mom will also miss Nobie.

“ We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart.

God has spoke let us all say Amen.
