

Aaron Madison

January 25, 1932 - April 14, 2016

Aaron Madison was born on January 25, 1932 to Charlie Madison and Daisy Scott.

He was the middle child of five siblings. He married Myrna Joan Gordon in the Winter of 1958. Their marriage produced two children: Frederick Madison and Debra Lynn Brackett (deceased).

He worked for Penske Corporation as a mechanic and retired in the mid-90's. Aaron had a love of family, a love of nature, and a love of music. In retirement, much of his time was spent transporting his sister to and from Virginia. Other free time was spent on property he owned in the Catskill Mountains on summer weekends with his grandchildren, Courtney and Shanell, and his beloved dog, Queenie. Later in life, he would go to the local senior centers daily.

He was very talented, playing the guitar at only 7 years of age, and he skated backward with speed and control. As an adult, he also played the piano. His preference was for jazz music.

Aaron was preceded in death by both parents, Charlie and Daisy Madison, his ex-wife, Myrna Joan Gordon and his daughter, Debra Lynn Brackett.

He is survived by his son, Frederick Madison; brother, Charlie Madison; sisters, Mary Louise Smith, Charlotte Blakes, and Rosetta Madison; his grandchildren, Shanell Brackett, Courtney Brackett, Gerald Rogers and Shamekia Bank; and great-grandchildren, Lauren Brackett and Taylor Karter.

He will also be missed by nieces, nephews, and a host of additional family members and friends.

“ I met Aaron one time at his birthday party a few years ago, everyone said he was a man of little words. But that day he had a lot of words to say. I so enjoyed our conversation and the little time I spent with him. He was so pleasant and happy. God has him now and enjoying him even more. I am praying for the family to get through this time and know that peace comes from the knowledge that God loves you and that He will take care of you.
