“ Our deepest condolences to the Bennett family. It is truly hard to believe she is no longer here. Ms. Arlene, as my mother called her, will be missed. She was always sweet and kind to my family, as my mother's next door neighbor for many years. When I was able to speak with her briefly last month, I told Ms. Arlene that she was always dear to us and always would be. I meant that because she was just so nice and funny. She also looked out for me and my mother. My mother and I miss you already Ms. Arlene. Life is short and time goes by so fast. We always have good intentions to see a person or talk to them, but sometimes life gets in the way. We must cherish our loved ones and people we care about always and as much as we can. Love must abound. That is who God is: LOVE. To her beautiful daughters and grandchildren, stay strong and remember that God is still on the throne. God has another wonderful and beautiful angel now. Rest in peace Ms. Arlene. The Motte Family
