Allen McDonald

July 18, 1962- October 7, 2025

Born in Brooklyn, New York on July 18, 1962, at Kings County Hospital and passed away at Mt. Sinai Hospital of Nassau County. Allen was the oldest child of Lucious and Levonia McDonald. He loved his brother Robert and adored his twin sisters Debra and Denise. However, Allen truly admired the strength and love of Levonia McDonald and Grandmother Thelma Morris, both preceded him in death.

Allen grew up in Bedstuy, Brooklyn. He attended elementary schools; P.S.25 and P.S.148, middle school I.S.33 and graduated from Julia Richmond High School. Allen also attended NYU before joining the Marine Corps, where he served for years.

Allen never married or had any children, but he always cherished the times he spent with family. Allen was a black belt in martial arts. His hobbies included being a gym buff, he listened to all the jazz greats as he perfected his alto saxophone skills, until he mastered the instrument.

Allen is predeceased by his grandparents: Thelma and Edgar, Wilhelmina and Harry. Mother and father: Levonia and Lucious. Allen leaves to cherish his life; brother: Robert, sisters: Debra and Denise, nieces and nephews: Jospheh, Stephen, Robert Jr., Essence, Ebony, Nubian, Crystal, Imani, James, Jayden, Maze. Emerald, Nylah, Avery, Reggie. Aunts: Blanche, Harriet, Brenda and a host of cousins and other relatives and friends.

Allen enjoyed life until he became ill. However, he continued to fight until the Lord called him home. RIEP our angel..
