

Amos Dor

January 6, 1958 - August 11, 2018

Amos Dor peacefully and gracefully took the hand of his savior and lord Jesus christ on Saturday, August 11 2018 at the young age of 60.

At the time he was resting and called out for his beloved daughter, they shared their best intimate moment holding hands as he was called to paradise.

Amos Dor was born on January 6 1958 to Altgrace and Lahren Dor in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, he was the fourth out of nine children, In Haiti he achieved his educational background.

On December 12 1992, he migrated to the united states to further his education in mechanical engineering and reuniting with his beloved wife Ketty Bouzi Dor from this union came their precious daughter Ketura Dor.

Amos Dor was known to many as Fr. DOR or Mr Gq, often times called Gq because of his fashionable style. My father was wonderful man and extraordinary father to me after we lost my mother. He would make sure i never lack anything, always be there when needed him or even when I told him I'm okay. My father was my best friend. He was known to everyone as father figure, counselor, adoptive father, friend and especially as the person that will make sure you have good time with a lot of laughter. Words can't explain what my father was to me but I know he was my saving grace. My father was the type of person if he see you lacking something he will talk to you and at least try to provide what you need. He was caring, loving, devoted father and mother to his daughter, giving individual and devoted church member and usher.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ketty Bouzi Dor. his mother Altgrace and his father Lahren and his mother- in- law.

Amos leaves to cherish his memory his mother Bella Desroiser, his daughter, Ketura A. Dor and three siblings: Mary Gabriele Pierre, David Dor and Josue Dor. He also leaves his nieces Sandy, Kassandra, Emmanuella and nephew Gregory, a God-daughter Shayna and a host of family and friends.

Amos Dor will greatly be missed by all
