

Mr. Andrew Grover Moore

April 14, 1958 - April 2, 2016

ANDREW GROVER MOORE was born on April 14, 1958 in Unity Hospital, Brownsville, Brooklyn, New York to Grover Moore El Jr. of Brooklyn, New York and Pearl Anne Lockhart Moore of Nassau, Bahamas. He was christened at St. Timothy Episcopal Church in Brooklyn, New York and confirmed at Ashbury College in Ottawa, Canada. After graduating from Ashbury College, he attended Niagara University where he obtained a B.S. degree in Political Science in 1982. He later attended Hofstra University.

Andrew had a great love for the law and decided to pursue a career in this field. He attended Adelphi University in Garden City, New York where he obtained a degree in paralegal studies. He later went to work as a paralegal for several years at the law firm of Kay Scholer, LLP in New York City where he was a valued part of their legal team. Andrew's great love of the law led him to the Labat Contracting Agency as a senior paralegal where he was assigned to the United States Attorney's Office of the Eastern District State of New York, from this assignment he went to work with the United States Department of Justice under former Attorney General Eric Holder followed by United States Attorney General Loretta Lynch until his death.

Andrew learned from an early age the value of family and honor from his parents and grandparents. Following their example, he learned the value of hard work and dedication. He was greatly proud of his contributions to upholding the law. Andrew was a dedicated son, brother, uncle and cousin. He was always there to lend a helping hand to whosoever needed it. Andrew believed in giving back. He started a scholarship fund at Ashbury College in his brother Michael's memory to help other students in need and contributed to many other charitable organizations. He would also go to many community outreach functions to let young people know about the many opportunities available to them at the Department of Justice.

Andrew loved to travel. He went on his first cruise while at Ashbury College and continued with the love of travel throughout his life. He loved traveling to the Bahamas to visit family and friends, especially during Junkanoo and Carnival/Goombay. He enjoyed visiting his long time childhood friends Lamonte Shepherd and Roz Lewis and Roz's daughter Taylor and his Godson Evan in Los Angeles, California, and his close friend Philip Nwankwo in Columbus, New Jersey.

Even though Andrew suffered from serious health issues he enjoyed life to the fullest. He had a great love of sports particularly ice hockey. He enjoyed taking his nieces and nephews ice skating, and to baseball, basketball and football games (Liberty, Brooklyn Cyclones, Mets, Nets etc.). He especially enjoyed accompanying his father to baseball games. It gave him great satisfaction seeing his father happy.

Andrew departed this life on April 2, 2016 at Brookdale Hospital in Brooklyn, New York. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Grover and Priscilla Moore, mother Pearl A. Moore, brother Michael J. Moore and sister Joy A. Moore. He leaves to cherish his memory his father Grover Moore El Jr., sister Valerie E. L. Moore, nieces Erika J. Moore, and Zenobia S. S. Moore-Cohen, nephew Duane S. Moore, Grand nephews, Emanuel Williams and Jeremiah Lamber, and grandniece Melody Williams. Aunts Iris Green, Agnes Morris of Richmond, VA, Joyce Bushell of Hackensack NJ, Lydia Hanchel, and Danessa Atkins. Also the Lockhart family from Nassau Bahamas, Tucker–Bushel family, Atkins family, special family friend Pricilla Smith, and a host of relatives, friends, and acquaintances that will miss him dearly.

“ Dear family and friends, My name is Nicole. I am so sorry for your loss. It really hard to lose a love one in death. Did you know the bible give us a positive hope for the future. The bible shows that God has both the ability and desire to bring back the dead. He keeps in his limitless memory a detailed record of each person he will resurrect by mean of his almighty power. ( Act 24:15) Soon we wil see our love one again.

“ To the family of Andy Moore, my heart goes out to you on your loss. Although I didn't know Andy earlier in life living in the neighborhood, I did have the pleasure of meeting him and knowing him through another and he was a wonderful person that you couldn't help but to like. May God's peace bring you all through this sorrowful time and may Andy rest in God's everlasting care. With love and heartfelt sympathy for all of our loss, Ms Renee Jacobs.

“ To: The Moore family who are like my own family. It is with the utmost sorrow that I submit these words to you. Andy was like a brother to all of us that grew up on Chester Street and a true friend in every sense of the word. Always respectful of others, ready and willing to help whenever or wherever he could and always standing for righteousness with those he knew and his endeavors. Andy will truly be missed by us all. I'll surely miss the laughter we always shared and the smile that would also accompany him whenever we met. Keep smiling Andy. We all loved you but God loved you the best and most of all. Love you always my brother.

Your friend and brother, Lamont Simpson.
