“ Aunt Angela I can truly say you were a big part of my life and you leave me with so many memories and wisdom. As a Woman of God you help me with my walk with God and I'm truly thankful for having you in my life. How can I forget the times in the kitchen you frying your famous fried chicken (btw who inherited the famous fried chicken pot?) Also, your cakes especially the coconut cake I called the fur cake. Your laughter your creative words and phrases you always had us in the kitchen laughing and eating. The picture that I posted have you doing just that. In the kitchen cooking and making us laugh. I love you so much Auntie, but I know where you are and that makes me happy.

“ I want to thank you Aunt Angela for always being so planted in yours beliefs, many people didn’t understand it, but I did!! You should me how to be direct,(mean what I say and say what I mean) in a respectful manner I can remember the summer I spent at your house and you should me how to make your famous turkey burgers, yummy, I loved the relationship we had, more like a second Mom rather than an Aunt, many people never knew but we had a special bond with each other, I can’t remember a time you would need me to come and go to Western Beef for you and I wouldn’t be there, just as if I called to talk you and you always answered and made time for me... I’m going to miss you beyond what words can explain!!! You are going home to your father now he needs you for a bigger plan, no more worries, no more suffering,no more sorrows, just rejoice up there with the rest of your siblings and praise his holy name... Love Your Niece Zarisiahe

“ To My Lady,
May You Sleep Peacefully For Eternity. I'm Going To Miss You So Much And I Love You So Much & I'm Grateful For The Time God Granted You To Be Here. You Were The Smartest And Strongest Person I've Ever Known. Thank You For Being My Foundation And Giving Me A Place To Always Call Home 1196. You've Impacted So Many Lives And You Will Be Sorely Missed In The Flesh But Your Spirit Will Never Fade. I'll Never Another Birthday With A Pink Cake 🙁 But I Love You Granny Forever And Always Your Granddaughter Ariel
