“ I haven't seen Tio in too many years until 2 years ago. My mom and I was going to Puerto Rico and made a stop in New York. We missed our connecting flight and was grateful that my family let us stay at their house. Tia was so happy, God bless her (RIP), and I was able to spend some time with Tio. I played some good old jibaro music and he loved it. I will never forget the smile he gave when he heard the music he grew up with. Tio will be missed dearly. RIP.
