

Mrs. Anvilene Thomas Baker

October 1, 1913 - May 25, 2016

No obituary found for this tribute.

Cemetery Details

Cameron Grove AME Zion Cemetery

Sanford, NC

Previous Events

Funeral Service

JUN 18. 11:00 AM (ET)

Cameron Grove AME Zion Church
Sanford, NC

Burial

JUN 18 (ET)

Cameron Grove AME Zion Cemetery
Sanford, NC

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Anvilene Thomas Baker

November 11, 2022 at 12:38 PM

“ Lukisha Baker lit a candle in memory of Mrs. Anvilene Thomas Baker

Lukisha Baker - February 26, 2019 at 07:06 PM

“ i just miss my grandma ... its soon be a year , it feels like yesterday we was laughing and baking cakes :(

priscilla baker-wellington - March 10, 2017 at 07:46 PM

“ Mother Anvilene Thomas Baker
The Obituary

Our Matriarch, Mrs. Anvilene T. Baker first blessed her parents Ed Thomas and Josie Cameron Thomas when she arrived into the world October 1, 1913. 102 years ago, a true Centurion. She was the first born of nine children. Her soul was rendered back to the Lord in which she served May 25, 2016.

Anvilene was educated in Broadway North Carolina and after that the world was set ablaze. She met and married her love Ervin Baker. This union bore four children.

“Weenie” as she was so lovingly called for many years was derived from the delicious food that she prepared as a cook. You could tell that all of the meals she prepared were made with love.

She eased on up the road to New York City in the mid sixties where she resided with her daughter cooking up a storm and helping to raise some of her grands, great grands and a great great. In which she was much appreciated and greatly loved for doing so. Teaching them old school values and cutting some tail if need be. More than likely not she would cut those beautiful grey eyes and get to shaking that finger which usually did the trick.

She would usually return home (Broadway & Sanford NC) with her granddaughter in tow to stay with her Aunt Mary Sue and brother James. Every summer was filled with delicious meals and fishing, lots of fishing. Going out in the field and picking fresh food, slopping hogs, canning and smoking meats.

She was a most kind person that would do anything in her power to help anyone. She also instilled this in her offspring.

Anvilene has now made her final journey to her heavenly home.

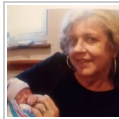

She is now and forever will be with her Lord and savior Jesus Christ. She has joined her beloved Husband Ervin Baker, Sons Ernest Lee Baker & James Ervin Baker, 3 Brothers James, Charles & John Lee Thomas, 4 Sisters Elsie & Lessie Thomas, Josie Patterson and Laura Alice Todd. Her grandson Ralph and great granddaughter Litiqua.

She leaves a most enriched and vibrant legacy to be carried on by:

Two daughters Josie Baker Wellington (son-in-law Victor M. Wellington) Alberta Crudup. One sister Ms. Lucy Davis of Queens NY. 12 grandchildren 36 great grands & many great great grands. A most wonderful attendant which has become family, Ms. Hilda Peters. Last but not least a great host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*Lovingly Submitted
The Family*

Lukisha Baker - June 22, 2016 at 09:03 AM

I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers go out to you and your family

Ona Tamburello - June 23, 2016 at 03:49 PM