

Ms. Barbara May Harden

September 2, 1931 - December 28, 2019

In sept 1934 Alice Bryant and Russell Davis gave birth to Barbara May Harden many referred to her as “BABS”. Barbara was born & raised in Brooklyn NY. Barbara was Alice Bryant only girl and the youngest to three brothers SONNY, JIMMY and BERNARD, leaving her no choice but to become a tough cookie..

Barbara took on various customer service jobs, her interactions with people were mostly memorable. Barbara gave birth to 4 children Brenda Austin, Andre Austin, George Harden and Lorraine Harden.

BABS LOVED her family, and truly enjoyed having parties attending parties and hanging out with friends she would refer to as her Family. One woman in particular Edith “edy” Lyons who shares countless memories of her and Barbara GOOD TIMES...

Barbara was diagnosed with Multiple sclerosis in her early 40s the disease impacted her for the remaining of her life however the illness left no effect on her HEART. Barbara was sweet, kind and respectful to EVERYONE and never complained. Barbara LOVED food and if u spent a few minutes with her you would have to make her a cup of TEA and tell her where “Georgie boy” (her son) was.. Barbara loved to drink TEA..

Barbara physically departed this life on Saturday December 28th 2019 leaving behind 1 sister Regina ndiaye, 2 daughters Brenda Austin, Lorraine Harden, 1 son George Harden, Her grandkids Genea, jaquan, quannea, Branden, Kosha, And Barbie a host of nieces nephews, great grandkids and friends who loved her dearly.
