“ My heart is full knowing that I will no longer get to hear your voice anymore. As I reflect on our conversations, I realize that you were telling me goodbye. I will miss our early morning, noon time, evenings, and late night call as you waited for Quan to walk on the door. I wish I had pushed a little harder. Rest on Cousin!! Your labor is done and your race has been won. Until we meet again. As we shared after every call...I love you cousin💔💔💔

“ Ms. Capers, I remember your bright smile and beautiful spirit when I first met you. Interacting with you during Lequan's four years at Medgar Ever College Preparatory School as his guidance counselor was wonderful. You were one of those parents whom I could always reach. You raised a fine young man, and it was a pleasure working with you in the best interest of Lequan's education.

Lequan, I continue to pray for you and your family. Your mother was a wonderful woman.

May she rest in eternal peace.

I only knew Brigitte through phone conversations. That was over thirty years. She was always polite and sweet. T I can testify how hard it is losing a loved one but nothing compares to the loss of a child. I'll keep you and the family in prayer. Whenever you feel down hold to God's unchanging hand.

Love ❤️ you my Sister in Blue
