“ I met Bruce when he first came to Pearson, and was immediately impressed, not only with his professionalism, but his kindness and sense of humor. He was one of the people I missed when I left Pearson, and I am sure being the type of person he was, he has many close friends and loving family. Wishing them all peace during this time. May his light shine on. Teresa Ward

“ I met Bruce when we moved from Upper Saddle River to Hoboken back in 2015. I only knew him just over 3 years and it feels like I know him for 10. We would go out by the river and talk about the shows we would watch, SIX, 911, Navy Seals and just BS about them for a little while. Sometimes Bruce would go on a Rant about something that he was mad about at work or in the world in general and he was loud and had no filter. I would laugh my ass off. He would then thank me for listening and letting him vent on the way back up in the elevator. Other times I would be walking down the hall and I would hear his booming voice go, "Mike, Mike, Mike, Guess what day it is?" after that camel, hump day commercial. That would always make me laugh.

Bruce was the guy I went to if I had an issue in the cafe or needed help with something, before I even finished my sentence he was either taking care of it or typing an email to someone to help. I knew he was on it, no matter how big or small or If I caused an issue he was always with the "dont worry about it" attitude. He always said to me " I gotcha covered Brother". Bruce loved our food in the cafe so much that he came in just about every day and got a soup , an entree and then another entree to take home for dinner.

A couple weeks ago, I had to go in the office to do some paperwork on a sunday but my ID wouldn't let me in. I called Bruce, thinking he can either just tell the guard it was ok , or go on the computer and make a change, but he said, I'll be right there I'm just in Newport Mall. So he went out of his way to come help me on a Sunday and let me in the building.

Bruce was not only a great person to work with but he also became a great friend

“ Im lost of words, and taken back that Bruce is gone, in the office yesterday, i swore i saw him walking by in the hallways, i saw him crossing the street, or just him and kicking it about Hennessy! Or DR vacation, or the craziness at work. Bruce was not only professional, he was dedicated, committed even to his last breath... We shared the same bday! and we were suppose to celebrate when i got back... Bruce love ya! keep smiling.. and keep having fun the way you loved too... You will always be in my prayers! Bruce was loved, and not often do we take time to appreciate or say how we feel about people...

Love your Crazy latina Joanna - from Pearson!!

Tomorrow will be difficult.. but just happy to see you one last time!

My deepest condolences to his family!

“ You will be missed Bruce, not only for being a consummate professional but more importantly for being a kind person. I will always remember how big the smiles were on all the kids faces as you led them around the Hoboken office for "Take Our Daughters & Sons to Work Day" --but even more fondly, how much bigger your smile was since you truly enjoyed your job. You may not have realized the impact you have made in people's lives over the years but true kindness will always be remembered.

“ Bruce was a wonderful guy, who ALWAYS went above and beyond to help others. He loved his job and loved his family. He spoke of his coworkers with fondness and always had a positive thing to say about all. He always spoke of his mom and siblings and his daughter and cared for all with great enthusiasm. I worked closely with Bruce for over 10 years and I personally am going to miss his laugh, his questions, his ideas and his willingness and ability to get things accomplished. He always looked to learn from situations and became a better person for it. He accomplished many great things and he was very proud to have done so. He was well liked by just about everyone who he came across and he will truly be missed by all.

Bruce had just started a new assignment and we were planning to go out to lunch in September to celebrate. I am saddened that we will not get to share one more steak and sangria.

My thoughts and prayers go out to the Styron family during this very difficult time. TM
