February 13, 1925 - December 3, 2016

Obituary

A time to be born and a time to die. Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

A Time To Be Born

Mother Catherine Perry was born the late Watson and Mary P. Miller in Windsor North Carolina.

She was the fifth child of ten siblings, three brothers and five sisters, who have preceded her in death.

A Time To Love

Mother Catherine and Thomas Lee Perry, who preceded her in death, were united in holy matrimony, and to this union three children were born. Thomas James Perry, Madeline Fauche Perry-Drake, and Marvin Angela Perry.

A Time To Live

Mother Perry grew up in a christian home. She attended school in North Carolina, and graduated with honors. She left her home in North Carolina to pursue opportunities in New York City, where she continued her education with zeal and enthusiasm. She was employed at Kings County Hospital as A Dietitian for over twenty five years.

Her passion was cooking , which she did with pride and passion Catherine was a loving and kind person. She was the person whom you could always get advise and direction from, in any situation. She was known as Ms. Catherine by most, and Beat the Butt Lady by many of the young ones in the community. A time when all parents help raised each other children.

Mother Perry was a faithful and true believer in God. She joined Universal Temple Of God, at it's very first existences , under the leadership of Bishop Landon E. Penn. Mother Perry was a devoted choir member, and in her senior years she than served on the Mothers Board. She Loved God, her family and her church. Mother Perry was a blessing to her friends and others, and they were a blessing to her.

A Time To Die

On Saturday December 3, 2016, God so graciously put his child to sleep in the comfort of His loving arms, until He awakens her and calls her name.
