

Mr. Chesterfield Buttler

July 19, 1919 - July 31, 2018

Chesterfield Butler was the 2nd child to the Late Jestina and Theophilus Butler in Colon Rep De Panamá on July 19, 1919. Tío, went to school in Silver City, Canal Zone.

Tío migrated to the US In 1972 where he worked the Garment District in NYC until his retirement. In his early retirement years, Tío spent his time doing what he loved most and that was playing music. He played in various Senior centers in the Bronx.

Chester's passion I life was his music. He played both the piano and saxophone with numerous bands in Panamá & NYC. Tío also taught many students how to play and read music over the years. In his lifetime He would spread his knowledge and love of music with all who was willing to learn.

Chester leaves to cherish their memories his children, grandchildren, great grand children, neices, & nephews. He will be missed by all. Sleep In Peace
Tío
