

Claudia Marie Isaacs

August 26, 1960 - July 14, 2015

Claudia Isaacs first of three children born to Frank and Zerah Isaacs on August 26th 1960 in Kingston Jamaica, former resident of Bronx, Cambria Heights Queens and Middle Town, New York. Died unexpectedly on July 14th in the Mount Sinai Roosevelt Hospital.

Claudia was spoken of by her teachers and family as a child born with brains. Claudia was a very smart child accomplishing that which she sets her mind to. She loved music, took piano lessons at the age of five which continued through college, she also loved to dance.

Claudia and her brothers migrated to the United States in 1970 living in the Bronx where she started Junior High School. Then she attended John F. Kennedy High School and graduated at the top of the class. Claudia parents moved to Cambria Heights, Queens and Claudia relocated to Rhode Island where she attended Johnson Whales College in which she studied stenography; graduated with excellence in her class. Claudia returned to New York where she worked as a court reporter for a number of years. She then returned to school and pursued the studies of paralegal. She continued her job as a court reporter. In 2003 she obtained employment with the law firm Roberts & Holland as a Paralegal in Manhattan where she was employed up to the time of her passing.

Claudia was also a lover of tennis and racquetball which she often played in her spare time and was also an avid reader.

Claudia is preceded in death by her mother Zerah Isaacs who died 1989 and father Frank Isaacs who died in 2003.

Claudia is survived by two brothers Keith and Michael along with their children Tiffany, Zerah, and Prime, sister-in-law Shonna, great nieces: Brielle, Mikaila and Lillian; Donna Johnson-Heard (sister) and her family. Aunts Dr. Hyacinth Martin, Reverend Vera Isaacs and Maureen Smith. Uncles Cyril Isaacs, Owen Isaacs, Fredrick Martin and Headley Smith. Cousins: Christine and Gary. And a host of other relatives, friends and co-workers.

Tribute Wall

“ Claudia Marie Isaacs

November 11, 2022 at 12:38 PM