

Mr. Clyde Lindsay

April 23, 1947 - September 24, 2015

CLYDE "DUVAL" LINDSAY was born the 4th child of 5 children. He was born on April 23 1947 in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Clyde obtained his education in a public school in South Carolina. He subsequently migrated to New York City and adjusted well after relocating.

Clyde was introduced to the late Celeste Koffi in the late 60's, the two fell in love and they were together until her demise. A child, Chicanda Ryles was born to this union. They had three grandchildren that they loved dearly.

Clyde was employed at a number of jobs, including the food industry and the art of hustling industry. He enjoyed his work and it was the topic of many entertaining stories.

Clyde had a laid back personality. He enjoyed socializing with family and friends. Clyde's laid back nature allowed him to maintain a happy spirit. One of his many passions was dancing with his loving wife Celeste. Clyde was a loving person to be around.

Clyde leaves to mourn his cherished memories
a loving daughter Chicanda Ryles, one son

Clyde "Duval" Lomas, two step children Darrell Birmingham and Natasha Birmingham; six granddaughters: Shaquana Birmingham, Shanequa Ryles, Nikeya Birmingham, Catina Birmingham, Danasha Birmingham and Monet Birmingham; three grandsons: Saquan Birmingham, Maleak Birmingham and Darrell Birmingham Jr.; three sisters: Rose Lindsay, Sammie Cyriaque and Joann Lindsay; one brother Frank Lindsay, mother-in-law Eleanor Birmingham, sister-in-law Tracey Stockly, brother-in-law Thomas Birmingham and close friend and care giver Josette Mackie and son Giovanni Mackie and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends who loved him.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Clyde Lindsay

November 11, 2022 at 12:38 PM

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

Grace Funeral Chapels - December 03, 2015 at 11:29 AM

“ To my favorite uncle, you will be missed but not forgotten. i remember you letting me try on your platform shoes and your kangol so i could be just like you. i thank you for being there for my mom when she needed you. i know you are in a much better place. i love you so much. until we meet again.

monique lindsay casey - emmaus , PA - niece - September 29, 2015 at 12:00 AM