

Cornelia M. Lewis

January 20, 1917 - April 12, 2012

Cornelia M. Lewis (Sang), 95, of Jamaica, New York went home to be with her loving Lord on April 12, 2012 at Queens Boulevard Long Term Care Facility in Woodside, New York after a long illness. Cornelia was born on January 20, 1917 in Laurens, South Carolina to the late Willie and Cornelia Little. Cornelia was the beloved wife of the late James Lewis Sr. Cornelia attended the Thomas Sanders High School in Laurens, South Carolina and was a member of the Evening Light Church of God. She loved working as a Seamstress, cooking, traveling, teaching Sunday school and singing in New Testament Church of God Senior Choir. Cornelia also loved organizing and coordinating shopping trips for the Women of the Church to the Amish Village in Pennsylvania and bus trips to the International and National Church of God Conventions. Cornelia was a kind and generous Christian and member of New Testament Church of God in Brooklyn, New York and she provided funds for the less fortunate to attend many of these bus trips. Cornelia was a beautiful and fashionable lady who was noted for her frugal purchasing expertise and participation in fashion shows for special events. She used the money she earned to contribute to the church building fund.

Cornelia was preceded in death by her husband, James Lewis Sr., daughter Delores Banks and son Allen Lewis, sisters Eula Jones, Lena Fuller, Annie Laura Graham, Luella Smith, Irene Gillyard and brother James Arthur Little. She is survived by her sons James Lewis Jr., Richard Lewis, Vernon Lewis (Ali Abdul-Karim) and sister Mary Cherry (Harold), brothers Edward Little (Sarah) and Perry Little (Doris), grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Cornelia M. Lewis

November 11, 2022 at 12:38 PM