

Curtis L. Johnson

May 2, 1963 - March 20, 2019

Curtis L Johnson was born in Far Rockaway, Queens on May 2nd, 1963, to the late Willie and Daisy Johnson. He was the 4th child out of five children. Curtis attended Sarah J Hale high school.

After high school, he met the late Howie Wiess who served as his mentor. Howie introduced Curtis to the medical field, where Curtis would become a successful Dental prosthetist (Dental Technician). Until his untimely departure, Curtis was employed as a Painter at Stevenson & Common.

Curtis was a force to be reckoned with. He earned his way into the hearts of many people, he was known to be a “people person”. He lived, loved, and gave as he tried to help as many people as he could. Curtis left his earthly home on March 20, 2019.

Curtis pastimes included watching blaxploitation and Karate movies as his favorite martial artist was Bruce Lee, spending time with his children and his friends. He took pride in his appearance as he had a love for fashion. He was often seen matching from head to toe. Curtis loved women and wasn't ashamed of it, he was given the nickname “Curt the Flirt” by his son-in-law (Sean Pigatt). He was passionate and made his presence known in his children's lives. He treasured his relationship with his only child grandchild, Davion Pigatt.

He was preceded in death by his parents Wille A Johnson (Daisy A Johnson), brother Essique (Butch), Williams, sister Yvette Johnson.

Curtis leaves to cherish his memories: daughter's DeAshia Pigatt (Son-in-law, Sean Pigatt) of Newark, NJ; Lay Lay Harris of Far Rockaway, Queens; a son Curtis L Johnson Jr. of Brooklyn, NYC; grandson Davion Pigatt of Newark, NJ; sisters Jacqueline Johnson of Monticello, NY; Darlene Dickson of Queens, NYC; Valerie King of Montgomery, AL; Carol Johnson-Burch-Cassell of Bronx, NY (Brother-in-law, Robert Cassell of Queens, NY); Partner Beryl Beckasteff of Queens, NY; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, family members and friends.
