“ Uncle Darryl words can't explain how much I miss you already. It doesn't seem real that you're gone but being that you are I feel its important to say how much I love you . A part of me feels bad that I didn't call or text you daily but a part of me is happy that you are free and not suffering. I love you and thank you for not only being my uncle but also a father figure. There is no limit to the things I'd give just to have you back.
