“ Dear Alisa,
My heart aches for you in this time of loss. I have been in your shoes, and I know how heavy the grief can feel. But I also know that God is faithful. Just as He gave me strength, I trust He will give you peace and see you through. May His love surround you.

“ A diamond in the rough as he would say i suggest thats the born and raise in the BK; Crooklyn. 115TH he hold to heart" but my cousin as i know was the radio raheem of do the right thing with his radio. The radio he had in 1988 brought life to Orangeburg SC, Ah New York boi but family from here in the South. I'm being a young git, I idolize him and his brother Darnell from being from the golden era of hiphop. Cuz they taught me to beatbox in my auntee tee mat house and his mother my aunt Diane baked a serious strawberry cake for my birthday in the same time frame when i was 8... I wear flat laces in my pumas and addias until this day, Cuz say that's how we rock with the checker board style in 88. I can tell you so much more.... but big cuz rest I knew when you went home Darnell and Aunt Diane ran to gate like she did on the Price in Right and thank God my baby home.....

“ Nephew all I can remember is that you were larger than life itself, although we didn't see you often we will always remember the big voice, the smile, and the genuine heart you always greeted us with whenever we were in your presence, you've left behind memories that no one can ever steal. ❤️
Love, Aunt Deborah & Uncle Ty 🙏

“ First and foremost my condolences to his wife and kids & family Cedgric was and will always be one of the coolest and most humble soulful person you will ever meet we met back in 2005 at Brooklyn Dodge but we use to call it New Jack City Lol but if you didn't know how to sell cars then you could not work there and Cedgric was a straight hustle he would try to sell you water to a whale and we been friends every since. Big Brother You will always be missed and my condolences again to his wife and family.....
