

Detective/JTTF Robert Walker, Jr.

September 21, 1943 - September 16, 2013

Robert Walker, Jr., was born September 21, 1943 to the late Robert and late Rosalie Walker in Buffalo, South Carolina. Robert Jr., was the eldest of five children: three brothers: Floyd, Lloyd and William; and one sister, Anita. Robert Jr., attended schools in Brooklyn, NY and graduated from George Westinghouse Vocational and Technical High school; majoring in radio and television technology.

Robert joined the Law Enforcement in 1963. For over thirty years, he rose through the ranks; beginning as an NYCTA police officer, NYCTA Anti-Crime Undercover Detective 2nd grade and NYPD Detective 2nd grade. He then spent more than ten years working with the FBI; the Department of Justice, and eventually retiring from Special Investigations as a member of the elite New York Joint Terrorist Task Force. Along the way he received many recognitions and awards from these various agencies. One of his proudest accomplishments was being instrumental in the arrest of the 1993 World Trade Center bombers. Because of this success; he received awards, and recognized by then US Attorney General Jo Ann White.

Robert was a steadfast believer. His faith helped during his crime-fighting career to remain forceful yet serious, kind and gentle. During his adulthood he was a member of two churches. Robert spent more than twenty years as a member of Brooklyn, New York's Garden of Eden Baptist Church; where his first cousin Reverend George B. Peake is the pastor. Robert served as Chairperson of the Deacon Board. Around 2008, Robert moved his membership to Brooklyn, New York's St. Paul's Tabernacle City of Lights Ministry. He again, served as Chairperson of the Deacon Board and Trustee of Finances under the leadership of Bishop John L. Smith and Pastor, Reverend James. D. Tucker. Robert remained a member of St. Pauls' until his passing.

On September 16, 2013 about 3:25 pm his heavenly Father called him home to his rest. He died quietly and peacefully in the loving arms of his wife, Pat G'Orge-Walker and surrounded by several family members.

Cherishing his memory are daughters: Gizel Dan-Yette (Poughkeepsie, NY), Ingrid and Marisa (Brooklyn, NY) Grandchildren: Kecia, Donald, Gary, Brian, Garrard, Desean, Shyheim, Jerome, Niajia, Shareef, Maya, Jada, Aniyah and "his little princess" Jonnay. Robert also leaves to mourn nine great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts and extended family members, relatives and friends.

“ To the family I offer my condolences. I did not know Rob personally but I adopted Pat as my big sister so I would call him brother in law. I have shared in a lot of happy times and some sad times but I can truly say that Rob was a godly man and an inspiration to me his love and faith in God is a testimony to us all. Another soldier has gone forth in the army of The Lord but the love and legacy that he left behind will forever be in our hearts. Rob knew the days ahead will be coming so he went to be with the Father to help clear the paths that we have to take. They say to be absent in body is to be present with The Lord. Rob prepared for this moment and he knows that hearts will be broken and tears will be shed but he is smiling because he has reached his goal to sit at the Masters table and feast with The Lord. So I say to the family keep his memory and his legacy alive and know that one day in that great getting up morning we shall see Rob again sming and singing How I got over, my soul looks back and wonder how I got over . Pat you will forever be my big sister and in my prayers and know that we will have our 5:30 am chats again. Peace and blessings to the family and follow Rob's example and keep God first and the rest will take care of itself.

“ *Pat,
We have prayed and cried with as you were going through the painful and tiring events leading up to Rob's crossing over. Even though you were not ready for him to go, Rob knew that you would be alright for two reasons: 1.) Your faith was NEVER in doubt and 2.) Rob took care of you like he was supposed to in life and in death. We will continue to pray for you and your family as you go through this mourning period. We Love You and God will keep you!*

*Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“ Dear Pat Sister Betty Walker,
May God's love comfort you during your time of grieving for your husband. As a fan, I prayed for healing for your husband, and love in peace for you. As you posted and informed us of Rob's condition, we watched a love story between Husband and wife unfold. Thank you for sharing with us. Still praying for you and your family. Rest in peace Robert Walker, Jr.

“ Your love will never die. Neither will the respect and admiration felt by all of us who are your friend. Even though we went to the same high school, I only truly got to know you over the last ten years or so. Please accept my sincere and heartfelt condolences and prayers for you and your family. Rob will never be forgotten and mentioning his name will always remind of the love you share.
