

Ms. Dorothy Williams

November 29, 1934 - April 12, 2018

Dorothy Washington Williams was born in Vernon, Texas on November 29, 1934 to the late Reverend Lulanger Washington and the late Vada Mae Washington. Dorothy had one sister, Mary Louise and they grew up in Clarksville, Texas where she attended Cheatham High School.

Dorothy's creativity began early, as she was proud to play in the band in high school. After graduating Dorothy and her sister moved to NYC. Her first job was helping others. She worked at Kings County Hospital as an ambulance attendant.

Her career started with the NYS Department of Corrections at Bedford Hills and then transferred to NYC Department of Corrections where she spent over 20 years working as an officer, training academy instructor and Captain in the Commissioner's Office. She retired from NYC Corrections on August 1, 1983. Her final employment was with Wackenhut.

Dorothy was a dedicated member of First Baptist Church; she sang in the choir, worked in the soup kitchen and took great pride in her church activities. She loved people and was always eager to help someone.

Dorothy touched so many lives with her kind, gentle spirit and warm smile. She was a member of the Democratic Club and spent many years working the polls.

Dorothy loved bowling and won several trophies. She enjoyed travelling, playing bridge, watching the Mets play baseball, and spending time with friends and family.

Dorothy leaves behind three nieces, Melanie Daniels, Marcia Daniels and Terri Daniels-Howard. (Will), brother-in-law Everette Daniels. Grand niece Yendi, Great grand niece Ariana, Grandnephew Andre (Pop) and nephew Brandon. Dear friends Calvin Davis, Willie Gaines, Shirley Branch and a host of family and friends.
