

Edward Gill

November 24, 1953 - January 28, 2018

His Dash: 1953-2018

We celebrate the life of my dear husband, Edward Gill who left quietly to be with the almighty on January 28th, 2018.

Edward Eugene Gill, born to Elizabeth and Herbert Hoover Gill, Sr. on Nov 24th 1953. He attended Thomas Jefferson High School. From there, he served as crew forman for Pacific Moving and Storage Co. for 39 years, always diligent, always on time.

In 1983, Ed married his childhood sweetheart, Diane Coleman and from that union was born two sons, Dion Edward and Christopher Daniel.

Ed was always cool, smooth, smart, handsome, and friendly, always greeting his fellow tenants with his signature, "Hi, Neighbor!" Yet was known to many as "Snake," due to his tough, no-nonsense demeanor. Ed was also an avid poker player, a lover of billiards, wildlife, and math, a loving and dutiful Grandpa who had been working on inventing a numbers games to teach the grandkids to master counting.

Ed, a devoted husband, met his beautiful wife, Diane, 49 years ago and formed an everlasting bond. In Ed's final years, the two spent just about every waking moment together and their spark never wavered, from food trips to Doctor's appointments to date nights to birthday dinners.

He leaves to mourn: his wife Diane Coleman-Gill; two sons Dion and Christopher; three sisters, Priscilla Gill, Pattie McGill, Claudette Gill; and one brother, William Gill; one daughter-in-law Carilla Gill; three granddaughters, Ahmni, Aura, and August; one sister-in-law Kim Coleman-Bates; four Brother-in-laws, John Coleman, Darrell Coleman, Steven Coleman, and Ralph McGill; one aunt, Esther Tatum-Warring.; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins, whom he loved and they loved him.

“ Diane, Deon and Chris so sorry to hear about your loss. Edward was a good person and will be truly missed. I can clearly see him sitting on the forklift outside the warehouse on my way to and from work when I was living in Brooklyn on Linwood St. I pray God provides you with comfort through this difficult time.
