

Ms. Elsa Pagan

April 8, 1945 - July 29, 2017

Elsa Garcia was born April 8th, 1945 the eldest of Pedro and Lydia Garcia's 6 children. She was raised in Ponce Puerto Rico with 4 of her siblings, Pedro, Nancy, Enrique and Emma. In 1952 the Garcia family moved to the New York, living in the Bronx where they welcomed Elsa's youngest sister Yvette, the lower east side of Manhattan and eventually settling in Brooklyn in 1957.

Elsa graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School and went to work at Liberty Distributers where she would meet Jesus Manuel Pagan. Jesus and Elsa were married in September of 1970 and from that union they were blessed with 2 children, William and Julia. After raising her 2 children Elsa returned to work, this time as a clerk for the City of New York until she retired in 2009.

On July 29th 2017 Elsa was called back to heaven. Elsa leaves to honor her memory her mother Lydia Garcia, husband Jesus M. Pagan, son William J. Pagan and his loving wife Charlana Fox-Pagan, daughter Julia E. Pagan-Tellado, granddaughters: Liana Barnes and her husband Austin Barnes, Aylia Tellado, Emily Tellado and Ava Pagan.

Elsa will also be remembered and cherished by her siblings: Pedro Garcia (Milagros Garcia-Perez), Nancy Levin, Enrique Garcia (Nancy Garcia), Emma Dobin (Bart Dobin), Yvette Metoyer (Gerry Metoyer). She nurtured and cared for her nephew Pedro Garcia Jr., niece Nieda Garcia, nephew Enrique Garcia, along with a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

Elsa was a wonderful cook, is loved by all and will be remembered in our hearts forever.

“ Elsa was my sister. I don't remember a time she wasn't there. I knew that if I needed help she would do her best to be there for me. Our mom always tells a story about how she was "borrowed" by the neighborhood girls every evening to be taken for a walk. They enjoyed taking her out so much. I love and will miss my sister greatly.
