

Ernest Milton Bell

August 28, 1953 - March 4, 2017

Ernest Milton Bell was born to the late William Frank and Hattie Bell on August 28, 1953, in Williamston, North Carolina.

Ernest lived in Brooklyn most of his life. Here is where he met Edna Jeanette Cunningham. The couple met at Downstate Hospital where Ernest wooed Edna by entertaining her with his unique sense of humor. The two were later married on June 2, 1990 and remained together until his passing.

Ernest was a loyal and dedicated worker and was employed by Downstate Hospital for twenty-seven years. People who knew Ernest loved his funny antics. He humorously referred to himself as "Mack Daddy", while he danced and sang and made everyone laugh.

Ernest Milton Bell departed this life on March 4, 2017, after he was stricken with illness. Ernest Bell leaves to mourn his wife of twenty-seven years, Edna Jeannette Bell of Brooklyn, New York, and three step-children: Derrick Tompkins, Carla Tompkins, and Johanna White Bailey; a grandson: Brandon Pointer; one brother: Frankie Bell and wife Linda Bell of Rosedale, Queens, nieces and nephews: Sharrona, Nicole, Russell Jr., and Jonathan; one sister: Cynthia Bell of South Carolina; one step-sister: Cindy Ford of New York; one sister-in-law: Alma Jane Livemond of Easton, PA ;and a hosts of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins, childhood and current friends and acquaintances.
