

Eva Roberson

March 19, 1932 - February 11, 2019

Eva Almalois Little was born March 19, 1932 in Popular Point township Martin County – North Carolina to Fred Little and Verna Mae Stancil. She departed us on February 11, 2019.

Eva Little attended the public school system in North Carolina and then relocated to Brooklyn, New York. She married Oscar Lorenza Roberson, an ex-Army Military Policeman, in Brooklyn New York on November 10, 1955 and out of that marriage they had 5 children: Gregory, Alvin, Anthony, Stephen and Gail.

Eva Roberson was a member of East End Baptist Church in Brooklyn New York where she was baptized, studied Bible courses, served as an usher, and a Missionary.

Eva Roberson was a gentle, soft spoken stern but classy lady with a great sense of humor. When in the company of her family she kept the room laughing. There was always a sense of love, calm, laughter and wisdom as she always had a plate of food for you upon entering her kitchen. She spent her life helping all who she came in contact with and could serve righteously. She was a class act.

Her wisdom extended into her career in Education. She was a teaching aide of Early Childhood Education and specialized on those children who had issues adjusting within the system. She retired from the public school system after 25 plus years of devoted service.

She leaves to cherish her life, her sons, Gregory, Alvin(wife), Anthony, Stephen and Sweetheart Dana. Her 15 Grandchildren (Aaliyah, Malika, Hakim, Kristen, Tiffany, Isiah, Whitney, Stephen Jr., Jordan, Nile, Stephen III, Maya, Juston, Charlie, Jay). 15 Great Grandchildren (Harmony, Jayden, Tabitha, Denim, Nasir, Carter, Lyric, Samiyah, Zaire, Zakhi, Collin, Amor, Justice, Alani, & Justice Jr.) A host of nieces and nephews and good family friends. She will now join her husband Oscar and daughter Gail. Her sisters Annie Mildred Brown, Lois M Cherry, Gwendolyn Michelle Little and brother Curtis 'Bud' Little.
