

Evangelist Joyce Ann Ferguson

June 7, 1951 - September 18, 2019

Evangelist Joyce Ann Ferguson (Pee-Wee) born June 7, 1951, was called home to be with the Lord on September 18th, 2019. She was born to the late Lois Sadie and Hodges Ferguson. She was the wife of the late Raymond Campbell.

Joyce was known as being outspoken, caring, considerate and full of life. She was also known for being a very strong spirited woman.

Joyce attended school in the Virginia educational system. She received Christ at an early age. She later met, fell in love and married Raymond Campbell Sr. on June 27, 1970. From that union were born three children. Cassandra Ferguson, Jerome Campbell (deceased), and Shakiki Ferguson. After being separated from her husband, she later met and became devoted to John Sesame and from that loving relationship was born John Ferguson.

Joyce served and dedicated over 40 years at New York City Housing Authority and the community she loved so dearly. She began as a volunteer and worked her way up to Community Center Director of several locations throughout Brooklyn NY. She retired from her labor in June 2007, and moved to Midlothian VA. She was known at work for being hard working, having a kind heart and a warm smile.

Joyce joined Free Mission Apostolic Church under Bishop Walter Dunlap where she continued her spiritual education. She faithfully and wholeheartedly sang on the choir and attended prayer and bible study. Joyce later joined the Disciples Of Jesus Christ of Nazareth Church under Pastor Apostle Curtis Leon Magazine, where she received extended spiritual biblical teaching and was later ordained Evangelist.

We are thankful for the life of the beautiful Evangelist Joyce Ann Ferguson. She will truly be missed but her soul will live on forever more. Into heavens gates, she joins those who have gone on before her. She was met by her mother Lois Ferguson, her father, Hodges Ferguson, Her husband, Raymond Campbell Sr. Her son, Raymond Campbell Jr. Her Brother Robert Perkins, her sister Bonita Perkins, and lots of family members that couldn't wait to greet her.
