

Evelyn Edwina Filpo

April 6, 1970 - May 12, 2024

The beautiful, charismatic, loving Evelyn Filpo was called home on may 12th 2024.

Evelyn was born and raised in ENY Brooklyn, where she was raised by her mother Helen & grandparents Ruth and Edgar and her four uncles Edgar Jr, Edward, Edwin, & Edmond, who treated and protected her like a little sister. Her mother Helen was more than a mother to her, they were also best friends who acted just like sisters. They never went a day without speaking. She graduated from Franklin K. Lane HS. She always had a passion for dancing and loved music, especially salsa & freestyle.

When Evelyn met her husband Hector they started a beautiful family having four Children, Magdalena, Cornelia, Amanda & Hector Jr.

Evelyn was extremely devoted and passionate in being a homemaker, a wife and mother. She put her whole life into being a mother making sure she was there every step in raising her children, from sports to PTA meetings to dropping and picking up from school she didn't miss a beat! She loved her children more than anything in the world. Not only was she a mother to her children but a mother figure to all. There wasn't a kid in the neighborhood, a cousin, a friend of her children who didn't look at "ma" or "Titi Evelyn" as a confidant and mother figure. She always had a space for anyone to lay their head, a warm plate of food or an ear to listen.

She loved family gatherings and holidays her nickname during Christmas was Santa because she would make sure every child she knew had a gift and it brought her great joy to gift the people and children she loved. She couldn't wait to become a grandmother and loved her grandchildren Natalia, Scarlett, Isaiah, and Riley Rose with all of her heart & soul. The love of a grandmother is like no other and she made sure each and every one of them felt it anytime they were with her.

She also loved the family she married into. She loved being apart of the Filpo Family her sister in laws Evelyn & Kellina were her sisters and her brother in laws Jose, Carlos, Michael, Victor, & Elias were her brothers, the gang of nieces and nephews she looked at as bonus children for her. Every gathering filled with infectious laughter and love. she especially loved planning holidays and everything in between & wouldn't miss one even when she wasn't feeling her best.

This beautiful soul although here on earth for a short time left a tremendous mark on everyone she encountered from the children to the elderly. She will be missed and always remembered for being beautiful inside and out, loving, charismatic, spicy, funny, humble woman. Gone but never forgotten. May she rest in eternal peace.

Evelyn is survived by her husband Hector, her children Magdalena, Cornelia, Amanda, Hector Jr, her grandchildren Natalia, Scarlett, Isaiah, Riley Rose, Her Mother Helen, her Siblings, Aida, Jeanette, Yahaira, Juan, Ramon, & Her father Raymond.

“ I would like to take a moment to pay homage to my beautiful sister-in-law Evelyn Edwina Filpo who was called to heaven a bit too prematurely on May 12. Evelyn was God fearing, a devoted wife, wonderful mother, and doting grandmother! She loved her family and showered all kids, nieces, nephews AND their friends with love and kindness and a little bit of sas and tough love when necessary. She had a big heart and welcomed everyone with open arms. She would even open her home to you if you needed a place to stay. She made it a point to attend all family functions even when she was not feeling well. If you invited Evelyn to something, rest assured you could count on her to attend. That’s just who she was, dependable and someone you could always count on! She was warm, kind, loving, generous, and had a great sense of humor. She always lit up the room with her beautiful smile and infectious laughter. I will forever cherish decades of wonderful memories with my beloved sister in law.

The Filpo family will not be whole without her and family functions will never be the same. You will be sorely missed Eve... until we meet again! Rest in God’s Eternal Paradise 🙏💔

*I have been trying to find words to express how much I feel about you gaining your wings. Part of me is happy you are no longer suffering but the other parts wants you here! We did not talk every day but when we did it was long enough to keep us awake the whole night. We would talk about our present situation and laugh so hard when we spoke about our ventures in Brooklyn. Damn! We had fun ☐ we would always find a reason to walk to Sunnysdale with the boom box playing Merengue and singing- lol
If we were not outside we were roller skating in the hallway of the 5th floor where we lived 😞 I have so many cherished memories and I am thankful 🙏 You raised beautiful Queens and had a King on my birthday ❤️ You didn't make it to Florida in flesh but I will forever have you in spirit ❤️ fly high my friend/ sister- Fly high and Rest in paradise Elena~*

“ Not a memory per sei, but reading the obituary was powerful. It's clear that this matriarch of the Filpo family was both revered and loved beyond belief. May she rest in peace and all of her family revel in the joy that she brought them in her short time on Earth.

“ Dear Evelyn,

I find myself reminiscing about the first day we met, and I can't help but smile at the fond memories that flood my mind. From that very moment, I knew you were the perfect match for my cousin, and I knew you would become an integral part of our family.

Your infectious smile had the power to light up any room you entered. It was like a beacon of joy, radiating warmth and happiness to everyone around you. Your positive energy was contagious, and it brought so much light into our lives.

I remember the countless gatherings and family events where your presence made everything so much brighter. Your genuine kindness and welcoming nature made us all feel at ease and embraced. You had a special way of making each person feel seen and valued, and that is a gift that will forever be cherished.

As the years went by, our bond only grew stronger. We shared laughter, tears, and countless unforgettable moments together. The beautiful smile on your face. You have left an indelible mark on our hearts. The memories we created together will forever be treasured. Your beautiful smile, your kind and welcoming nature, and the love you shared will be remembered with great fondness.

Though it's difficult to say goodbye, I find solace in knowing that you are now at peace. Your spirit will continue to guide and inspire us, and your memory will live on in our hearts forever.

Thank you for being a dear friend and cousin's wife. Your presence in our lives was a true blessing, and I will always be grateful for the time we had together.

With love and cherished memories,

Sandy
