“ I remember my friend evelyn she was an amazing friend.i remember the good times we had together she will always be in my heart forever and she will be like the sister i never had.evelyn was such a special lady. What hurts me the most was that i wasnt there too see her or say goodbye to my dear friend. I will remember evelyn forever as a person who always had a smile on her face and a good heart evelyn my friend may you rest in piece and you are no longer suffering you are an angel now and you will live in my heart forever my friend.

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there.
I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there.
I did not die.*

“Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way, which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me. pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner. All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before. How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again.”

“ A Poem In Loving Memory of Evelyn

*Weep not for me though I am gone into the gentle night.
Grieve if you will, but not for long upon my soul's sweet flight.
There is no need for tears, I am at peace, my souls at rest.
There is no pain, I suffer not, for with your love I was so blessed.
I am in place of comfort, the fear is now gone.
Put those things in your thoughts, in your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath, remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.*

I am so very grateful to have had you in my life and to have shared many wonderful moments with you. I will miss you....

“ I remember the good times talking with Evelyn at her daughter, Stephanie's, school where I had worked. There we had become friends and I felt SO honored to have been invited to Stephanie's First Communion. I will miss Evelyn and chatting with her for hours on end on the phone. RIP my friend!!! I will see u someday...

And to add, this is, and WILL be, a tremendous loss for me as well. I would someday like to get in touch with Stephanie again..and to share memories of her mom. Evelyn was one of the kindest, sweetest persons that I have ever met. Vikki
