“Roxanne was not only my cousin but my sister and daughter’s God mother. Oh how I miss her so much. She had a direct personality and such a beautiful smile. What a high quality dresser she was, growing up I wanted to look and be just like her. Roxanne in her younger years was a walking model!! Hair and nails always done, a fashion nova.. The name Roxie in my words Foxy suited her very well. I remember sneaking and putting on her pumps. In my eyes she was the most prettiest girl in the world. I couldn’t have chose a better God mother for Gee Gee. When it came to her God child she did not play. I will miss you daily my sister. Love you so much.
