

Ms. Frances Hannah

February 12, 1933 - May 11, 2019

Mrs. Frances Hannah died peacefully in Allegheny General Hospital on May 11, 2019 in Pittsburgh, PA at the age of 86.

Frances Hannah was born on February 12, 1933 in Greenwood, South Carolina to Zorado Partlow and Robert Partlow. She graduated from Medgar Evers College and Audrey Cohen College with degrees in Education and administration. She married Eugene Hannah, in 1967. He was an Army Sergeant, the first black President of a Union, and then he owned a trucking business and then real estate in different parts of New York. After moving to New York, Frances Hannah began working for many different Companies and held many different positions. Over period of time, the couple welcomed 3 children into their home and Frances Hannah set about teaching them respect for others, being kind, faith in god; If you see someone in need, stop to help and not to walk by. In other words; see something, do something, because you will never know if you might need a helping hand one day. Her children remember her as a kind, gentle, patient, driven, a light of a beacon and being the rock of the family that kept everything and everyone together. My mother encouraged us to pursue our goals and everything we wanted to do in life. She was a person who set out to show world and people she met along the way that it is possible. That you can accomplish anything if you just put your mind to it and don't let nothing or no one stop you. This is what she taught to everyone in her family and to the people she met along the way. As well as keeping your faith in God! My mother was one True Beautiful Person In and OUT!!!!

Frances Hannah was accomplished at teaching, educating, inspiring people and cooking and often was a very funny person and would keep people laughing. She was a generous, witty, dedicated individual who loved everyone and who was passionate about changing the world, educating students and a beacon of enlightenment and hope. She was an active and dedicated member of the Zion Baptist Church and often volunteered at many different functions.

Frances Hannah is survived by her children Wendalyn Hannah in Pennsylvania, Eugene Hannah in Queens, New York, Yvonne Roberts in Long Island, NY and Valerie Hannah in Brooklyn, New York. Her grandchildren names are Daniel Washington, Jevon Hannah, Davon Hannah, Travis Bembury, Gwenda Bembury, Kenneth, Kystle, Katrina, Raymond, Anastacia and Tramane Harris. She is preceded in death by her children and grandchildren.
