“ I lost contact with my Aunt Irene back in 2001 after the 9/11 attack. We talked that day and she shared her experiences working for the IRS division located in one of the towers. She was dedicated to her work and her family. Her love for family, especially her son, my cousin Stephen, was so great that you could feel it whenever you were in her presence. I really hate that I lost touch with her but I will always cherish the memories of her as I was growing up. She was truly a phenomenal woman, Mother and Aunt.

I got in touch with a few co workers who retired from the Internal Revenue Service that knew her & they are shocked. My condolences goes out to the Straker family. May God be with you.

“ My greatest memory of Miss Straker is how well she treated me as a daughter in law. Through out the time I have known her, I was treated with respect and acceptance. She was not only an awesome mother to her son, Stephen but a great mother in law. I have indeed lost someone special. In my heart. always. Rest in peace. "Karen"
