“ Woke up missing you. 🙏 Closed my eyes and heard your voice. Remembering our last video chat. Our last phone conversation. Your words just continue to play over and over in my head. Too many memories to share, but know that I cherish them all. From adolescent to adulthood. Until we meet again ❤️ Rest Easy!

“ My heartfelt condolences, prayers and love goes out to Lamont, Terrance, Tiffany and the Baker family. May God continue to bless you and keep you always. My most rememberable memory of Gwen is when she saved my life at Coney Island beach. We was jumping the waves and I went under the water and the next thing i knew Gwen scooped me up with one hand. She was my true lifesaver and I'm forever grateful. She was a giant in life and I know she's the same in heaven, for God had needed of her. Continue her legacy of LOVE. She's just another solider gone home to be with the Lord. Until we meet again Gwen, much love Tracey James.

“ Gwen and I have been childhood friends from youngster. We grew up together on Linwood street and we became family. My heartfelt condolences go out to the Baker family. Know that I'm always in your corner.

I know Gwen from a kid growing up on Linwood St. Gwen always had a smile on her face and full of laughter. Gwen and my sisters would be on Linwood st and they always wanted to leave me behind. Gwen use to say leave that girl alone come on Claudette. She will truly be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
