

Mrs. Ivy May McGibbon

October 8, 1931 - May 16, 2016

IVY MAY WALKER was born on October 8, 1931 in St. Mary Jamaica, W.I. She was one of two children of Agatha Walker.

She was united in marriage to Richard McGibbon on January 22, 1957, he preceded her in death in October 2014. Ivy worked for many years in the tourist industry as an expert specializing in cut work embroidery in Kingston, Jamaica. She was an active member in the Anglican church until she migrated to the United States in 1996. Having loss her sight in 1990, this did not deter her and she attended the Lighthouse School for the Blind in Tampa, Florida, where she excelled and graduated at the top of her class.

She was a cheerful positive person who always encouraged her children, grandchildren and all who came in contact with her. Ivy was a God fearing woman and taught her children the importance of having God in their lives.

Ivy is survived by her brother, Sylvester; children, Sammy, Myrtle, Michael, Aldena, Loraine, Joan, Darlene, and Peter. Sons-in-law, Lascelles, Glenmore and Dewitt; daughter-in-law, Denise, as well as grandchildren, great grandchildren and a great, great grandchild. Also, nieces, nephews, and numerous friends who loved her dearly. She will truly be missed.

May her soul rest in peace!
