

James Leonard Fowler

November 4, 1965 - October 8, 2018

On November 4, 1965 James Leonard Fowler was born in Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn NY.

He graduated from Hillcrest high school. He joined the U.S. National Guard followed by several different career paths until he settled down working at Top Bingo Hall for many years where he gained his job family.

James loved to watch football and baseball and shouted when his favorite teams The Dallas Cowboys and the NY Yankees played. He loved to ride his bike, play handball, softball and play the lotto. He played his numbers faithfully and was as lucky as a rabbits foot.

James became sick from Cancer and passed away joining his brother David in heaven.

He leaves to mourn him, his parents Geraldine and Stanley, his brothers Christopher & Gordon and a sister Kathryn; Nephews GeQuan (Mista), GeJuan (Mann), Logan (Lo-Boogie) & Justyn (His Favorite). And Nieces Syncarae (Missy) & Sayquan (Meme). as well as other close family and friends.
