OBITUARY

On Tuesday May 27, 2008 at 7:30 pm, Jeanne B. Harrison went to be with the Lord. Jeanne B. Harrison was born on May 7, 1946 in Brooklyn, New York. She was the daughter of the late Kenneth Stewart and Audrey Philip. She was the eldest of seven children. She received her education at Our Lady of Victory School in Brooklyn, New York. She continued her education later on in life and graduated from Fashion Institute in 1983.

In 1969, she sang in a girl group known as the Sweet Cherries on the Tneck recording label, which was founded by the Isley Brothers & Ron Isley a.k.a. Mr. Biggs. After the group separated, she worked as a secretary and designer for the Isley Brothers. She was very unselfish, fun loving, and soft spoken to all who knew her. Jeanne's laugh was contagious and her smile would brighten your day.

Mother Harrison accepted Christ under the leadership of Bishop James Harvey (1986) at the time of her departure she was the Mother of Out Reach International Christian Fellowship under the leadership of her daughter Pastor Celeste Browne. Mother Harrison loved to sing in church, she was always part of the choir and worship team. She worked on the Motherboard, prayer warrior and encourager.

She leaves to cherish her memories her husband Joseph (JoJo) Harrison, mother-in-law Nellie Mae Harrison, stepfather Claude Philip, uncle Albert and aunt Pearl Small and aunt Etheline Black, five daughters Pastor Celeste Browne, Audrey Jemmott (Anthony), Victoria Walker, (Sherry)Wilson, and Latoya Browne, one stepson Joseph, brothers Kenneth (Terri), Micheal (Lindell), Brian, Glen, Steven and sister Donna Phillip-Jessup (Dicky), fourteen grandchildren Shawana, Tiffany, Robert, Orrian Jr., Shynana, Tiara, Charlene, Charles, Kenneth Jr., Quincy, Krystal, Mathew, Cheray, Cahilil, and six great grand children. She also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, friends, two special God sisters Doris and Candy.
