

Jennifer Sandra Philip

November 3, 1950 - August 1, 2019

On November 3, 1950, Jennifer Sandra Isaac was born to Cynthia Alexander and Conrad Isaac at Port of Spain General Hospital in Trinidad and Tobago. “Jenny”, as she was affectionately known, grew up on St. Joseph Road in Port of Spain along with her brothers and sister. She attended primary school at Nelson Street R.C School and will later attend High School at San Juan Private Secondary School. After high school, Jenny worked as a telephone operator at T&T Telephone Company.

In 1971, she migrated to the United States where she married Norman Philip and had two children, Richard and Chrystal. She would later pave the way for several other family members to come to the United States in search of better opportunities. After attending Kingsborough Community College, she became a direct care worker at New Hope Facility. She later obtained a job as a Nurse technician at New York Methodist Hospital where she worked and retired after 22 years. She was a dedicated mother and worked tirelessly to provide for her family.

Jenny loved to cook and go shopping. She also loved to travel with family and friends. Despite several life tragedies, including the death of her beloved parents and son, she continued to be a pillar for those around her. She was an avid woman of God and had a wonderful smile that would light up a room. She had a genuine love for her family and friends and would go to great lengths to help in whatever way possible.

Jenny will be sorely missed by all who knew her. She is survived by her daughter, Chrystal, granddaughter Aniyah, siblings: Shirlin, Erroland Calvin and a host of nephew, nieces, cousins and friends.
