“ John and I met at the Renaissance Hotel in Baltimore where we both worked. He was one of my very good cooks. We bonded quickly because he shared the same name as my father. He was always happy, laughing & joking but took his craft very seriously. When I took the Senior Sous Chef role at University of Maryland Chef he heard I was there and stopped through to see me and have a few laughs. Sadly, after just visiting me two weeks before his passing we were laughing and joking with one another. Brother, you will truly be missed. We had some fun times at the hotel. You were always a stand up guy. Rest easy my brother 🙏🕊️🌺🙏🕊️🌺
To the family, you have my deepest condolences and prayers in your time of loss. May God bring peace and comfort to your loved ones knowing that John is in a better place.
