

John Lewis

September 26, 1941 - July 31, 2017

John T. Lewis was born on September 26, 1941 to Bertha Mae Lewis and John Lewis, Sr. in Orrville, Alabama.

John attended Keith High School and later continued his education at John Jay College. He later became a Police Officer working for the 75th Precinct in 1969.

John's passion was working on cars. He loved to pull up a hood and check the oil or change the filter. When he took his car to a mechanic he would watch and learn. After he learned, he would fix the cars himself.

He loved reading the newspaper from front to back. He could discuss current events with you in detail all day long.

One of John's favorite past times was playing cards with his brothers, sisters and friends. There was nothing like a good game of tonk or poker.

John leaves behind his children: Deborah, Rodney, Sheila and Dochi. His ex wife Catherine. His sisters Lillie Mae, Geraldine and Mary Ellen. His brothers Darry and Charles. His uncle Sandy. He also leaves behind his grand boys (who always made him smile). His nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

He has gone on to be with his mother, father, his brothers Larry and Sam.
