“ What an Amazing person & remarkable life our Brother/Uncle John lived. We feel lucky & blessed to have been a part of his life. As Manny always says "John is my brother from another mother" always together taken care of the block. Manny always refer to themselves as John the Governor & Manny the Mayor of the block. John always took care of the block, he made sure we were always safe. John will always have a special place in our hearts, he was truly loved and we really miss him. Love Always Manny Mieles & Family

Bro. Manny You Could Not Have Spoken Any Better Even if John Were Here Himself. So Real, from Your Heart and Soul, Every Word Do True. And John Truly Loved the South, More Than Many May Even Know It.

“ My dear cousin/brother, it's still hard and I'm trying, just knowing that my ride or die partner is gone physically is hurting not only on me, but so many of your family and friends. Can't call and talk football trash or just call and check on each other. I'm not going to be selfish, you fought a good fight, so take your rest, FOREVER in my heart, Love ya, Pat (South Carolina)
