“ Wow I have so many memories from when you was born me and your mom was pregnant at the same time you was in oct and my son in December I always remember being with you and my son playing as babies and you growing up and becoming the fine young man you became and very family oriented and very helpful and loving. I remember texting you when the last hurricane we had and asked if everyone was ok and we spoke from there and I never thought that would be our last because I always would keep in touch with Jonathan and Justin I'm so heartbroken 💔 at what happened to you , it's so unfair, we love u and will always have u in our hearts forever #34 A legend

“ I love you Jonathan. You’ve touched so many lives. You loved with your whole heart. I remember so clearly our childhood memories when me and my siblings would stay over. Memories I’ll hold forever in my heart. Our hearts are hurting. You’ll be so missed but never forgotten. You’ll forever be my hero. Your heroism will forever be spoken about. We will be deeply grateful the rest of our lives for this gift you have given our mom(your Titi). We love you and you’ll always be remembered and honored. I kept hearing you loved the meaning of Ohana and when I looked it up all I can do is cry. Such a big heart filled with so much love for your family. “OHANA” means FAMILY and FAMILY means ‘Nobody Gets Left Behind or Forgotten. We love you and you’ll love forever in our hearts.

“ Where do I start, with so many memories of how you helped loved and had family always in heart . You have a soul that now many are expressing, your genuine you is what everyone has admire your selfishness ways of always putting everyone first is what makes you special.the value of life to live and not worry what anyone thinks, is what made your loving heart real. You lived to the fullest and even when you left you still live. You are a savior, a hero and most of all you are now our Angel, to guide us and protect each and everyone of us especially your children always watch over them . We miss you & Love you forever it's not goodbye it's until we see each other again ❤️

“ I remember Jonathan always being this over protective brother. One time I saw on tv that models walk a certain way to look better. we must have been 14-15 yrs old and when I saw Jonathan I would still walk that way till one day he caught on and said what the heck stop walking like that I ain't grown. I know many people know I had a moment wear I couldn't breath without him till I was in his presence. I stayed within for the war of the night u know I'm case I couldn't breathe again. You are special u just had a way about you we all love it was the way u loves us always bringing family together I love you and miss you but we will meet again and have so much to catch up on I miss that hug

“ We’ve shared a tremendous amount of memories together as kids. I wish as young adults we seen the value of building memories together a lot sooner... Life took us on separate paths and locations and we have missed a lot of time. Fortunately I believe God also has a plan and this Summer/ Fall we spent some time reconnecting via FaceTime sharing our growth, ideas stories of life and venting. I was able to tell you What you meant to me. Life has taken you from us all to soon! It has left a unforgettable mark of sadness in us all. I love you always cuzo! May you rest in Heaven but always be in our hearts. 🤔❤️

“ When Jonathan was born, it was like baby Simba from Lion King was born because we hadn’t had a baby around in a while, our big brothers Frankie & Michael were the only boys, amongst a football team of sisters, then Jonathan came and we all fell head over heels in love with him. He had his own song that his sisters would sing to him. He was full of so much love, more than this world had a capacity for. He was love so much by so many. There wasn’t a time we spoke or saw each other that he didn’t hug me and tell me he loved me. He was my lil big brother, my lil big head, my BRUDDA and I was his beautiful big sis, his forever Ruby Rose as he would tell me. He was an amazing brother, father, son, friend and husband! He loved hard and he fought harder. So if he loved you, y’all definitely fought hard at one point. Life will never be the same without him, there will always be a hole in my heart for him. I am comforted by the thought that he is now our Angel. My handsome brother you are UNFORGETTABLE! ILYSFM!!! <3 Big Sis xoxo
