

Jose Juan Negrón

September 21, 1944 - January 6, 2020

Jose Negrón, known by family and friends as Juan or Juanito, past away on January 6th, 2020.

Juan was born in Cayey, P.R., son of Francisca Rodríguez. He came to New York in his twenties during the late 1960's.

As an adult, Juan was always helping whom ever needed a handy person. He was the hispanic "MacGyver" who used his tools along with a quick-witted sense of humor to fix things.

He enjoyed music, tv and in his younger years dancing. Juan loved to fish and would be willing to join others who loved the sport. Oddly, as a fisherman, he did not like to eat fish. Juan just enjoyed the nature of casting a line, the art of patience, friendly company and excitement of a catch.

He is loved and will be remembered by his family and friends.
