“Karlynn, its been 2 years and I can still remember how we used to talk about pursuing careers in Law Enforcement. I CAN'T believe that you are gone. I never question God and you were such a wonderful cousin that I am sure he had his reasons as to WHY you. I pray our family find strength each year as we deal with your loss. I will never forget you.

Loving Lord, I want to lift up some dear family members of mine that are going through much grief at the moment and are finding it so difficult to come to terms with all that has taken place in the last few years...

I humbly ask that You would come to them and provide the comfort they need to come to terms with all that has happened – and the strength to face the reality that things will never be as they were.

Lord I know that their grief seems to be overwhelming them and I am hurting for them, and know not what to do to help – and so I am coming to You to in prayer, to ask that You will meet each of them at their point of need and help them to turn to You at this sad time.

Thank You Lord for being there for me and into Your hands I place each one of these dear ones who have such sadness in their hearts – I KNOW in Whom I believe and an confident that You will bring good out of this situation – and to You be all the praise and glory.

Amen
