“ Kaytie Ariaahna Dare

November 11, 2022 at 12:38 PM

“ Kaytie attended the school I work in and, although I was not her teacher, I was drawn to her as she always had a bright smile and enjoyed being a social butterfly. Kaytie’s strength was understated and her spirit was strong. I visited her in hospital when she had a health scare when she was in pre-k and I saw the “ why” of her strength and spirit as she was surrounded by her loving family. She was blessed with such a wonderful, caring family. Our hearts break to know Kaytie has left this world... keeping all who loved her and who were touched by her gentle soul in prayer.

“ Kaytie was an extraordinary little girl. She will forever live in the hearts & memories of all who knew her. God bless her and her family always.

“ Kaytie taught me to be humble with my patients. I met Kaytie when she was admitted to Cornell for one of her pneumonia episodes. I walked in, saw the little girl with difficulty breathing and came up with a long list of tests and medications I thought she needed. Both Kaytie and mom gave me this half smile and only when I left the room I realized they were having a full conversation, well over my head, with their eyes. Kaytie had big meaningful eyes and she could say everything through them. And Maria was there ALWAYS to understand and advocate for her. When Kaytie was ready to go home, I already learned that in that little girl was huge force. Everything I thought about this fragile girl was wrong. She was holding great on her own and didn't need no support. She was so graceful and gentle, but at the same time very strong and powerful. I learned a lot from Katie and from her amazing family, and I will have you in my heart for ever!

“ Last time I saw Kaytie was when she met my new born and her baby cousin Killian. She told me he was beautiful and she was so loving, as she was always. Had i known that was going to be the last time I saw you, I would have hold you longer. Every memory I have of you is of you being silly, sassy, playful but overall being our lil shining star. You might be in heaven looking after us, but you will always and forever live in our hearts. Te quiero mucho princesa.
