

Kenneth Goines

July 31, 1966 - March 19, 2016

KENNETH GOINES was born on July 31, 1966 in Brooklyn, New York. Kenneth was the first born to Pamela Jean Goines and Horace Hudson.

He attended Eastern District High School, later he went to Albany College to obtain his Associates Degree.

Kenneth was so full of life and joy. He loved his music, he especially loved playing Al Green. He also loved the Knicks even when they lost, he also loved the Jets and the Giants.

Kenneth worked very hard at his job as a courier/Messenger. His boss use to call him the "Milkman" because he use to always milk the clock. He was also known to his family and friends as "Gorilla". Kenneth could make you laugh with his jokes and his many sayings "you or".

Kenneth was very family oriented, his family always came first and foremost. Family gave him life, joy and peace. He will be forever in each and all of our hearts.

He leaves to mourn his wife Michele Goines, his son Layquan Johnson, his daughter Faith Goines, three step daughters Kisha, Charlene and Kim, his granddaughter Faith Lr'reina Johnson, step grandson Sherodd, three brothers

Andre, Tommy and Ronnie, two sisters-in-law Monica and Gina, two sisters Audrey and Tina, two aunts Rhetta and April, two uncles Kym and Curtis and a host of nieces, nephews, grand nieces and grand nephew (Ameer), cousins and friends.
