“ Hi Dad, I miss you so much and I love you! Things have really been going well, and I wish you were physically here to see. I feel your energy all around me sometimes, and I see you in my dreams every now and again. In my last dream I yelled at you for leaving us, and it felt so real. I felt like you were giving me closure I needed. Thank you for that.

I still wish I had you around to talk to, or that I had both my parents to advise me lol. Really thankful for Mom, and how she's been trying her best to be her best. Grandma is amazing and always makes me feel like you're right in the room with us. Cynthia always brings me joy with her memories of you. Thank you for being you & always trying your best. I don't care how anyone tries to downplay you or your influence, you were an amazing father, and all these years later I'm still thinking of you, and Allen and I are still having conversations trying to make sense of things. I love you.

“ Dear my handsome and beautiful brother,

I miss you so much. I really love and appreciate you more the older I get. You were very special to me. Thank you for worrying about your little sister. You were the best bro and I hope you are with the best. Its hard losing you and pop I miss you both so much. Life has been up and down without the both of you. I miss my two men. When I say men you were both strong, brave men to me (you and pop). I love you both. You will always be Mi Corazon (My Heart).

Te Amo (I love You)

*Your little sister always,
Yolanda*

“ Dear brother,

Today is seven years you left us. It never gets easier. Just wanted to let you know we all miss you and love you. I went to your grave today and I felt better after I left there. I know you are with the Lord and that gives me comfort. You would be so proud of your kids there are all doing well. I look forward to one day reuniting with you in the spirit of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I ask God to keep you in his care and watch over us.

*Rest well my brother,
Love you always,
Your Sister,
Yolanda*

“ Hi Daddy, Its been awhile that i have been on this page. I wasn't sure if it had an expiration date. This year will make 7 years that you have been gone from our lives. I miss you so very much. In a couple of weeks i turn 39 and i pray that i am wiser but some days i am not so sure. lol I am married now and have a blended family of my own and it is hard work. I don't know how you guys did it with all of us kids but somehow we all managed to be okay. A lot of us are separate and really don't see each other at all. I guess Kevin will be glued to my hip until the day i leave this earth. We have always stayed close and enjoy our memories of having you as our dad. Life lessons we learned from you. We both have managed to be independent with help from no one but God and we have you to thank for showing us how to work, make money and take care of ourselves and family. I just wanted to drop in to let you know not a day goes by that i don't think about you. I know you are free from pain and watching over us. I love you daddy. Rest well.

“ Hello Big Brother (July 19, 2016)

Its Almost Six years in heaven, I miss you. Just wanted to let you know I was thinking about you a lot saturday night a whole lot. The next morning I woke up and left my friends house and out of no where this handsome guy comes from no where to help me and he asked me my name and I said Yolanda and I said what's yours and he said Kevin. I felt so good I felt like you came to me to see me for a minute. I really miss you and I really believe that you are okay. I hope to see you again by the way of someone in my path that is you.

“ Happy heavenly birthday Curly Top. Thinking of the great times we shared on the east and west coast and thankful for the memories. Thank you for trusting me with Dae Dae your last summer with us. We are still close and I love her very much. She has a heart that GOD dwells in and very loving but sometimes misunderstood. I am anxious to see her here in a few months! More memories! Your family in Inwood including your Aunt Stephanie made me more than welcome when I hit the old neighborhood. Good times...BBQ...chats and I even saw old Rapley! Yolanda and I have had some memorable times together....concerts, art shows, parties....gee whiz I miss you, Kidd. Our biblical talks left a void.....my back, of course, is still healed and I give my testimony everywhere I go! Hallelujah, thank you JESUS, amen. GOD bless us all.

“ I can't express the way I feel I miss you so much. I often wished I would not have to lose a child. You have always been a special son, my oldest. Life hasn't been the same since you're been gone but I know I have a angel watching over me. Loving you always until we meet again. I keep in touch with the kids and they are doing well you would be proud of them. Keep watching over us.

“ Happy 55th Birthday in Heaven Brother,

I miss you and wish you were here. I miss your smile and seeing you. I hope and pray to God that you are at peace. The family isn't the same without you.

I hope to be with you one day again. I will love you always, Rest in Peace.

“Daddy, I miss you so much. I keep thinking about how when you know a person is special and significant to your life because you can never forget them. I think about you every day. Every time I see the white butterfly I am reminded of your spirit flowing freely. I still feel like you watch out for me while in heaven and I thank you always for being my protector. Things here on earth have been a little hard but thank God that its starting to get easier. I miss our talks and remember days when I took lunch and would talk to you and lunch would be over but I just couldn't get off the phone with you because what you were saying meant so much to me. As I get older I am trying to remember that my life has to be an example for those that love me. I fell off with my weight and let it get up really high and I am working hard to get back down and its not easy but my life depends on it. The girls are growing beautifully and I have met someone that I love very much. Good things are happening for a change and I am happy about it. I wish that I could see you again, have a bite to eat and just listen to any story or just anything from you. Happy Birthday Daddy. I love you very much.

“ I thought I was finished, but I guess I'm not. Lol. I remember all of those great talks we had. I would look at you like "what is he talking about?". But as time has passed I want to thank you for always being honest with me, and letting me know the truth even if I didn't want to know. Thank you for teaching me how to eat healthy. Thank you for showing me new things and places so I wouldn't be ignorant to what else is out there. Thank you for always taking me out on rides when I desperately wanted to get out of the house! I'll never forget watching travel channel with you and looking at all the good food we someday planned to try. I miss you so much, there isn't anyone in this world like you. You're so special. I just wonder why you had to leave so soon...it still racks my brain. Like was it really necessary? Did you really have to go? I wish I could've went with you....lol...no, but seriously. I love you so much daddy and I'll never stop missing you. Happy Birthday

“ Happy birthday Dad! I wish you were still here, life really sucks without you. I feel like you were the only one who really understood me. But I'm happy for you because you don't have to suffer anymore. You don't have to deal with the stresses and disappointments of life, you get to finally be happy and at peace, and that's what you deserve. Everything has turned into a circus since your departure, and I realize more and more how much I really need you. I want to thank you for being an exceptional parent, and always looking out for your family. I often wonder how I'm going to go on without you, because these past five years have been so hard. I hope you remember me and I hope we see each other soon, it's too hard being without you, I love you

“ Thinking about how wonderful things are in heaven for you Kevin. We all miss you and I thank God for everything you taught and did for me. I am so grateful for our children, because they remind me of our goal of raising a blended family together. LOL Lots of work...

I pray for each of them everyday and know that embracing God, in Jesus name, they will do great things..

Looking forward to seeing you again with Mom, Danny and everyone else dear to us.. I want you to know that I'm doing very well, you would be proud, and I thank you for laying the standards of life and love...

“ Happy birthday daddy. I miss you so much. I keep thinking of the day we went to church so the pastor could pray for you. It was a life changing moment for me because I knew you were in the best hands and that your rest was coming. Finally no more pain. I love you and know that I will see you one day.

“ My cousin will be loved and remembered by my as long as I have breath in my body. Today, 54 years ago, GOD loaned him to us. We bonded through the Word of GOD and love for family. He is loved by all who knew him and our family continually talk about him. See you in the rapture, "Curly Top". GOD has you back now but I pray we will all be together again one day.

“ In memory of cousin Kevin Bernard Wilson, Sr. Four years ago today he was taken to the King. Rest in paradise, dear cousin and know we will be with you again, forever with the KING of KINGS. You had Sabbath Day church at the crack of dawn with Marie and me. We sang Amazing Grace, How Great Thou Art and other songs, we prayed together and Marie read your favorite.....Psalms 91 to us and not many hours afterward GOD called you home. I could tell by the extreme change in your face that you saw GOD when you took your last breath. You looked so peaceful, so handsome, so much more than in life. As you take your rest I pray we all will make our transition and see the face of GOD as you did. Love you cousin Cynthia.
